O'DUFFY BENT ON CARRYING OUT SUNDAY'S PARADE

Out Of The Gloaming.

"Any advance upon the White Paper seems to me to be wholly out of question" said confidently, if not confidentially, one of the co-optimists, who has returned to Bombay, before burying himself under the pile of waiting briefs in Allahabad.

* * * *

But there is a rival to Sir T. B. in Sir Samuel Hoare who also knows his brief remarkably well. As long as there is life there is hope, for Hoare is determined to fight "within the limits of the W. P." In the universal depression the news ought to cheer us up.

* * * *

We wonder what would have happened to the world and the W. P. if the Siamese twins had refused to co-operate. Perhaps we would have had the W. P. without Sir T. B.'s autographed memorandum. Tragic thought!

* * * *

The British Press is unnaturally well-informed about India, since it is fed by its truthful correspondents in India. The "People" says that three Chinese were arrested in Calcutta with arms to help Terrorists, following Gandhiji's declaration of C. D. campaign!

* * * *

If a people get the Government they deserve, Britain gets the Press it deserves. The Terrorists would be the first to congratulate Gandhiji on his conversion, if he were to begin non-violent Civil Disobedience with the help of six pistols! The epitaph of the C. D. movement has yet to be written, but it won't be with a revolver.

* * * *

The refined Mr. Bullocke and his friends love whipping, their leader confessed in the Council, though he did not tell us whether for themselves or others. But since he says they "welcome it," they ought to give a public exhibtion in a square either in Bombay or Poona.

* * * *

The "Times of India" editorial staff should be asked to officiate at this grand exhibition, since they also love it as much as Bullocke and his friends. In such, as in other matters, an ounce of practice is worth a ton of theory, even for Bullockes.

* * * *

As, Bullocke and his friends must have their own particular likes and dislikes, they ought to have their choice,—whether it should be with a cane on bare buttacks, or a cat-o'-nine tails. The money collected from the public might be handed over appropriately to the Y. W. C. A. or the S. P. C. A.

* * * *

"We are, therefore, prepared to believe that Bengal Congressmen are seriously considering the abandonment of the Civil Disobedience campaign and are preparing to accept what loaves and fishes are likely to fall into their hands as a result of the Round Table Conference and the recommendations set forth in the White Paper."—"C. & M. Gazette."

So, even Anglo-India expects nothing better than loaves and fishes to fall into India's hands. It's not sure even of this but its more optimistic than Sapru who is expecting only crumbs.

* * * *

"HE BOUGHT A BLIND BULLOCK"
"BUT HE HAD TO PAY THE FULL PRICE"
—The "Madras Mail."

Sounds like something about Sapru's return.

* * * *

"R.T.C. QUALIFY FOR SEMI-FINALS."
The "Hindustan Times."

But it was finalled and buried long, long ago.

* * * *

A Negro happened to be in a border town in Ohio on election day. In the afternoon an acquaintance met him.

"Have you voted, Rastus?" he asked.

"Yassir, I's voted."

"How did you vote?"

"Wel, boss, it was dis way. I meets Republican in th' street an' he gibs me 'leven dollars to vote for his man. An' I meets a Democrat, an' he gib me seven dollars to vote for his man. So I voted for th' Democrat."

"But the Republican gave you the most money."

"Yassir, dat's just th' pint. I voted for dem Democrats because dey was least corrupt."

FEAR OF CIVIL WAR AND MASSACRE

100 Men Of Cork Brigade To Lead Marchers

MEN TO BE UNARMED & ORDERED NOT TO BREAK RANKS, UNTIL TOLD OTHERWISE BY OFFICER

(Special Cable.)

DUBLIN, August 10.

If there be a civil war, the National Guard won't be in it; otherwise, it will be a massacre as they are unarmed, said General O'Duffy referring to the statement made by the Minster in this connection last night.

Speculation is rife throughout the city as to the methods by which Mr. De Valera will prevent the Blue Shirt parade on Sunday.

It is stated that he may prohibit excursion trains carrying Blue Shirts to Dublin.

It is suggested in other quarters that the Public Safety Act which gives extraordinary powers to the military tribunal may be invoked, thus Mr. De Valera giving opponents a taste of their own medicine, since the Act was originally introduced by Mr. Cosgrave to deal with activities of the I.R.A.

MARCH TO BE CARRIED OUT

100 Cork Brigade Men To Be In Forefront

DUBLIN, Aug. 11.

The Cabinet sat for three hours considering whether to forbid General O'Duffy's parade on Sunday. At the end of the meeting it was announced that no statement would be made.

It is learned that Blue Shirts will march in uniform headed by 100 men who served in the famous Cork Brigade during the previous disturbances, and General O'Duffy has issued order that officers should impress on all ranks the imperative necessity of continuing the march.

Ranks would not be broken except at the direct order of a responsible officer.

General O'Duffy has specially emphasised that his men should be unarmed.—Reuter.

DE VALERA IN A FIX

Trouble Over Parade Of National Guards

(Special Cable).

DUBLIN, Aug. 10.

Remarkable allegations are made by the "United Irishmen," the official organ of the Cosgrave Party, that when Mr. De Valera's officers last week were confiscating revolvers of private citizens, collectors of I.R.A. were simultaneously canvassing householders in Dublin for subscriptions to arm and equip the "Republican Army."

It is alleged that non-subscribers were marked down in collectors' books as 'enemy" and subscribers as "friend."

Meanwhile, tension in Dublin is keenest for years. Mr. De Valera is faced with a dilemma, for, if he bans the Blue Shirt parade on Sunday he will have to be used to prevent it, and if he allows the parade, opponents of Blue Shirts may take the matter into their own hands.

FASCISM FOR IRELAND?

(Special Cable).

DUBLIN, Aug. 11.

General O'Duffy Director general of the National Guard has made a statement setting out his policy. He is in favour of a change of the Parliamentary system of the Irish Free State and is preparing for a campaign to support the new system on Fascist lines.

PARIS TO WAIT AND SEE

PARIS, Aug. 10.

"One swallow does not make a summer". This appears to be the attitude of the French Government towards Habicht's broadcast.

Government are going to wait and see whether the Reich would keep its promises or not.

The situation is not considered such as to require immediate consultation with the British Government.—Reuter's Special.

COSGRAVE'S DENIAL

LONDON, Aug. 11.

Cosgrave has flatly contradicted the rumour that by some secret alliance between General O'Duffy and himself, an attempt might be made to seize the Government. He adds: "We oppose all 'coups d' etat,' and conspiracies whatever may be their origin, and invite the Government to do the same."

Secret negotiations are taking place which may lead to the fusion of the Cosgrave Party and the Blue Shirts' organisation, although General O'Duffy has declared his dislike of the present Parliamentary system in the Irish Free State.

General O'Duffy's National Guards have officially adopted the Fascist salute.—Reuter.

HEAVY RAINS IN GUJERAT

Rivers Reported To Be In Floods

SURAT, August 11.

According to reliable information available here, the whole of the Gujerat Division between Broach and Ahmedabad districts, is experiencing conditions similar to those of the devastating floods of the year 1927.

It is learnt over the telephone that at Broach the river Narmada is in heavy floods, water having risen till evening to a height of 30 feet and if it rises by about 4 feet more, the train communication will be hampered.

The Railway engineering authorities are reported to be already on the spot watching the situation. In Broach City Dandia Bazar, Kotopore Bazar and Char Rasta localities are already under water. The village of Borbhatha, opposite to the bank of the river is also under water. The rain, however, stopped this morning, though the water in the river continued to rise the whole day.

VISHWAMITRI IN FLOODS.

It is learnt on enquiry that, at Baroda, the river Vishwamitri is in heavy floods. This, accompanied by the continuous rain till this morning, flooded the low-lying localities of the city. Sayajiganj and Residency portion are under water, so much so, that the mail bags had to be carried on elephant back; for the Railway Station is completely cut off from the City.

Further it is learnt that the position beyond Baroda is also critical as the river Mahisin Kaira District is also in floods.

The Kathiawar Express which was to arrive at Surat at 1 p. m. was held up beyond Baroda on account of the floods and hence it arrived Surat at 8 p.m.—A.P.

DADAR ROBBERY CASE OPENS

Seven Persons Involved In Theft Of Rs. 1900

PROSECUTION STORY

Alleged Attack On Teacher Of Municipal Marathi School

After a lapse of about a month since the charges were framed in what may be regarded as the upshot of the one-time Anand Mandal, the Dadar Robbery case made its re-appearance in the court of the Fifth Presidency Magistrate, Dadar, on Friday.

The accused in the present case are (1) V. S. Hardiker, (2) V. J. Powar, (3) V. M. Bhatker, (4) J. B. Bapat, who are alleged to have assaulted Mr. Dhamankar, the complainant in the case, and robbed him of Rs. 1,900; Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Joshi charged with disposing of the stolen money, and M. C. Pgnis, with having received the stolen money.

SEQUEL TO BOMB OUTRAGES.

It must be recounted in this connection how, as a result of two bombing incidents at the Empire Theatre and two robberies that took place at Santa Cruz and Dadar, and the consequent arrests of about eleven persons both in Bombay and in Poona, the Police originally set up the common charge of forming an association styled the "Anand Mandal", and how, after realising the inconsistencies creeping into this single charge-sheet, they were constrained to split it up into five or more separate charge-sheets. The Bomb case, was only recently disposed of by the same trying Magistrate, and in which all the four accused were committed to the sessions.

ROBBERY AT DADAR.

In opening the case for the prosecution Mr Velkar detailed the events of the robbery committed at Dadar on April 7 last. He stated that the complainant, Mr. V. V. Dhamankar, in company of another teacher, Sadashiv Krishna Upadhya, was bringing a tin box containing Rs. 1,900 in currency notes from the Municipal Schools Committee to the Municipal Marathi School on Lady Jamshedji Road, Dadar, at about 2-45 p.m. on the day in question. They had just entered the school premises and were making for the staircase when suddenly up strang the first two accused and clubbed them senseless. As they fell, both the accused snatched up the fallen money-box and passed it on to the third accused who finally made off with it.

STUDENT WITNESSES.

These incidents had been witnessed by two boys, one of whom had seen the two accused lying in wait at the foot of the stairs while the other had observed the third bhying 'bidi's ot a nearby shop.

Continuing, the Police Prosecutor, said that upon cries of "chor, chor" the first accused was arrested. On his making a statement the second and third accused were traced out while the statement made by the third accused led to apprehension of Mr. Pagnis. Pagnis's statement in turn caused the discovery of the Joshi couple

The sum of Rs. 300 deposited elsewhere for safe custody by the latter were also recovered.

"ANXIOUS SPECTATOR".

The prosecution went on to say that the fourth accused came to be arrested due to certain evidence showing that he was an anxious spectator of the scene of the robbery from across the road.

That the teachers were expecting their salary on the day of the robbery and that the first two accused had made inquiries to this end was also substantiated by further evidence.

At this stage the case was adjourned till August 18.

LITTLE'S ORIENTAL BALM

The readers' attention to the advertisement appearing in the issue of this paper by Little's Oriental Balm & Pharmaceuticals Ltd. Little's Oriental Balm was the earliest Oriental Balm to be placed before the public in modern containers. The enterprising makers of this balm have maintained their lead by the excellent quality of their product and, as will be seen from the advertisement, they are changing their packing which has been so familiar in almost every bazaar in India.

The new packing is a good illustration of the modern method of incorporating an old and well established label in a more up to date carton, as, while retaining the essentials of their old carton, they have added on the back their now famous Oriental design, sometimes called the Moon and Mosque design, which has been admired by all as one of a most striking Indian posters of recent years. Another feature is the introduction of the name Little's Oriental Balm on the carton in various Oriental languages.

The new packing has been necessitated by the fact that the firm now include a gift with each bottle of balm. The first introduction of this new packing will contain a delightful cake of an Indian made toilet soap delicately scented with Jasmine. The quality and price of the Balm will remain unaltered.

Ratnagiri.—A Malwan report states that following the decision of local Congressmen to hold a meeting in connection with Gandhiji's arrest, an order under Sction 144 has been promulgated in Malwan town prohibiting meetings, demonstrations, etc. for a period of two months, by the First Class Magistrate of Malwan. —A.P.

How A Woman May Retain Her Youth

"The woman who wants to look young must taboo massage creams and liquid rouge. She will only harden the structure of her face and destroy the fine texture of the skin," said Mrs. Margaret Holmes Bates, the well-known author.

"Reputable physicians have declared that if she indulges in artificial methods she risks losing her health," she continued. A perfectly natural method of treating a bad complexion is by using ordinary mercolized wax, as this adds nothing to the complexion, but takes from it instead. This wax obtainable at any chemist's, flakes off the sallow or blotchy outer skin in fine particles gently, without harming the skin beneath which gradually makes its appearance. The brilliantly beautiful complexion thus obtained is a new one—quite different from a patched-up old complexion. This is one way to retain youthful looks.

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Feeling Great

If you wake up in the morning feeling sour and depressed, entirely lacking in vim and vigour, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil or harsh purgatives and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

They can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The real reason for your run down feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pints of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Your stomach is filled with gas. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul; skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pints of bile flowing freely and make you feel "tip top." They contain wonderful, harmless gentle vegetable extracts especially effective when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Always look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the Red Package Label.

WIFE'S EAR CHOPPED OFF

Fisherman Committed To Sessions On Charge Of Causing Grievous Hurt

NO EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES

Deterrent Sentences Should Be Meted Out To Such Fellows, Says Magistrate

(From Our Correspondent.)

THANA, Aug. 11.

"In the interests of society it is very desirable that deterrent sentences should be meted out to such fellows as the present accused," observed Mr. L. T. Gholap, First-Class Sub-Divisional Magistrate for the Kalyan Prant, Thana, in committing Manglya Krishna (30), a fisherman residing at Iravli in the Thana Mahal, to stand his trial at the Sessions Court on a charge under section 326 I.P.C. of causing grievous hurt to his 22-year-old wife by cutting her ear with a knife.

"EAR CHOPPED OFF."

The prosecution story is that on June 12 last at about 8 p.m. Manglya asked his young wife Bemti to serv him food immediately. She replied that she would do so after feeding her baby. The accused got excited and gave her two blows with a stick, felled her down and chopped off her right ear. A neighbour, who heard her screams, hurried to her father's residence and, told him what had happened. He rushed to the house of his son-in-law and witnessed the whole affair. She was removed to her father's house.

POLICE PATEL'S ENQUIRY.

The police patil, who was communicated with, made inquiries on the spot. Next morning she was taken to the Thana Civil Hospital, where she was detained for treatment. Medical evidence showed that her face has been permanently disfigured by the cutting of her right ear. Though knife, is alleged to have been used, the accused had according to the 'Panch' produced a pair of scissors before the police as the instrument used to cut off her ear.

In all eight witnesses were examined by the prosecution.

COMMITTED TO SESSIONS.

The Magistrate, in the course of his committal order, observed: "For no fault of hers, he (accused) has disfigured in a brutal manner his wife for all her life. There are no extenuating circumstances whatever in his favour. Even now he does not seem to have repented his action; for, he has the audacity to state before this court that he did not cut off her ear and that it might have been cut off by her coming in contact with a piece of corrugated iron-sheet. In the interests of society it is very desirable that deterrent sentences should be meted out to such fellows as the present accused. It is therefore that I am committing this case to the Sessions."

SERIOUS BUS-MOTORCAR COLLISION

Inspector And Chauffeur Receive Injuries

Two persons were injured in a collision between a B. E. S. T. Bus and a motor car, which occured on Hughes Road Bombay, on Friday afternoon. As a result of the impact the car, which was a Rover tourer, was badly damaged while the front mudguards of the bus were smashed.

The names of the injured persons are: C. B. Sawant, a bus inspector, and Abdul Sutar Abdul Gafoor, the driver of the car. Their injuries, however, were not of a serious nature and they were discharged after treatment at the J. J. Hospital.

It was fortunate that at the time of the impact there were very few passengers in the bus, and those who were in it escaped with a severe shaking. Except for the driver there was no one in the Rover car.

The accident occurred at 2-15 p.m. at the junction of Hughes and French Roads. The bus was proceeding in the direction of Sandhurst Bridge. The Rover car was being driven in the opposite direction and was turning into French Road. At the junction of the two roads there is a bus stopping place, and the driver of the Rover, thinking that the bus would stop proceeded to take a turn into French Road. As, however, there were no passengers waiting at the stand, the bus did not stop with the result that there was a collision. The bus ran into the body of the Rover car, the entire left portion of which was severely dented and the car was dragged to a considerable distance.

On receipt of information Inspector Vanjara, Sub-Inspector Patankar and Sub-Inspector Tonpe immediately proceeded to the scene of the accident and removed the injured persons to the hospital. Police investigations are proceeding.

"A FAREWELL TO ARMS"

To Be Shown Again At Pathe

The wonderful reception that this production of Frank Borzage has been accorded by the Bombay public, was to be expected Crowds were unable to obtain seats during last week-end and the management are carrying on the picture again for a few days.

Gary Cooper has the role of Frederic Henry, an American Lieutenant in the Italian ambulance corps, who had been a typical soldier, rough, devoted to hard liquor and to the Villa Rossa's of every town, until the day he met Catherine Barkley, the brave and beautiful English nurse, whose role is played by Helen Hayes.

The two meet through Rinaldi (Menjou), an Italian army surgeon, who has annexed Frederic as his "best friend and war brother" fall in love and play out their stolen moments of loving with death ever waiting to catch up with them.

While the War presses in on every side of them, the two love desperately. Their affair flourishes when Cooper is wounded and sent back to the Milan Hospital in which Miss Hayes is a nurse. But when he has been cured, and has returned to the front, she flees to Switzerland to await the birth of their child.

Cooper, unaware of the fact, is unable to stand the separation from her, and deserts. Unable to find her in Milan, he ultimately reaches her side in Switzerland. He finds her in the hospital. The climax which follows is said to be one of the most dramatic ever filmed.

Those who have not seen this picture should make every effort to book their seats this week-end.

"NIGHT OF THE GARTER" AT WELLINGTON

"Sydney Howard", the popular comedian who scored in "Splinters", "Up for the Cup", "Mayor's Nest" and other pictures shown in Bombay, appears in a most entertaining role in "Night of the Garter", released by United Artists at the Wellington Cinema, Dhobi Talao, this week.

The incidents of the story centre round the hilarious adventures of Bodger, a butler, during the eventful night in which the action of the story takes place. The sequences result from a jewelled garter which Gwen Darling has to return to Kenneth Warwick which he had given her before marriage. She has to return the garter without the thing coming to the notice of her husband or Kenneth's wife Jennie. Things, however become complicated and they find themselves in a maze of difficulties.

Among other members of the cast are Elsie Randolph, a light comedienne, who was seen to advantage in "Yes, Mr. Brown". Another charming actress is Winifred Shotter whose dramatic abilities have brought her in the front rank during recent years

Lilian Gish may make a comeback to the screen under the direction of Merian C. Cooper

* * * *

The Royal Navy will figure prominently in "White Ensign," a Naval picture to be produced by Sound City, of Shepperton, with the co-operation of the Admiralty. The film will be directed by Lt.-Comdr. J L F Hunt, who directed the Indian talkie, "Karma," and was also associated with the British submarine film, "Men Like These."

"TO-DAY WE LIVE" AT CAPITOL

Joan Crawford Co-Stars With Gary Cooper

The combined appearance of Joan Crawford and Gary Cooper in a story written by the brilliant writer, William Faulkner, and directed by Howard Hawks of "Scarface" fame, are the factors which give "To-day We Live," opening to-night at the Capitol Theatre, the reputation of being the most anticipated motion picture of the current cinema season.

Miss Crawford, who won superlatives from critics and public alike for her outstanding work in "Grand Hotel" and "Letty Lynton," is cast as a member of a British ambulance unit in the present picture which is described as the experiences of a woman and three men during the World War. Cooper, in the principal male lead as an American aviator, follows up his effective performance in "A Farewell to Arms," and the other members of the male triangle are played by Robert Young, recently seen in "Men Must Fight," and Franchot Tone, the New York Theatre Guild star, who scored in "Success Story."

The activities of the British navy, particularly their dangerous "skeeter destroyers," play a prominent part in the action of "To-day We Live," with further exciting episodes centered on the aerial spectacles of bombing squadrons. According to the Faulkner story, however, although the war serves as a background for the plot, the conflict is never allowed to summerge the local point of drama in the strong personalities who are entangled in a struggle for life and love behind the lines.

COMIC TOUCHES.

Comedy interludes are brought into the story through the antics of Roscoe Karns as the "life of the billet," whose humorous philosophies serve to relieve the tension of the aviators who expect each day to be their last. The picture is likewise given lighter touches in the personality of Louise Closser Hale in the role of a faithful family servant who stops shedding tears over war troubles long enough to register her well-known inimitable dry wit. Rollo Lloyd and Hilda Vaughn complete the supporting cast.

"To-day We Live", is said to reach its most stirring points in the first meeting of Miss Crawford and Cooper at the very moment when she learns of her father's death in France; the last five hours before Robert Young and Franchot Tone leave Miss Crawford to enlist in the British navy; Cooper's bravery when he is taken aboard a secret speedboat which discharges a single torpedo at great risk to the pilots; and the final gesture of Young and Tone, who do a job for which Cooper was assigned and forfeit their lives in order to save his life for the girl whom they all love.

William Faulkner, who wrote "To-day We Live," is the author of "Sanctuary" and "Light in August" two of the outstanding American novels of the past decade. His latest story was adapted to the screen by Edith Fitzgerald and Dwight Taylor. A picture not to be missed.

"NIGHT WORLD" AT CARLTON

"Night World", the lightning paced Universal drama of the Great White Way, and what goes on behind the gay scenes in Broadway's pleasure places, and revealing sensational expose of the "cafe racket", which is causing comment all over the country comes to this theatre to-day.

There is a kick in every scene of "Night World", Lew Ayres give his great emotional characterization in the starring role, and the Clarke is the sympathetic chorus girl who stirs his emotions. Boris Karloff, who chilled you in "Frankenstein", is the happy-go-lucky hero whose underworld activities make things happen in a large and exciting way. Dorothy Revier, Russel Hopton, Clarence Muse, Bert Reach, Dorothy Peterson, Huntley Gordon, Gene Morgan and many other prime screen favorites, all directed by the master of human emotion, Director Hobart Henley, are included in the cast.

GLORIA SWANSON AT ROXY

Gloria Swanson's charm and talents have made her a great favourite with Cinema-fans, and her appearance is an eagerly-watched for event. She will be seen in a highly intriguing role this week in "Perfect Understanding" which will be on view this week at the Roxy Cinema, New Queen's Road.

Miss Swanson gives a musical treat with a number which she believes is the best she has ever done. Sir Nigel Playfair, famous English stage-actor makes his screen-debut in this film which has a cast of other brilliant players like Lawrence Oliver and Genevieve Tobin. Michael Farmer. Miss Swanson's husband, also makes his debut.

The story concerns an American girl who falls in love with the son of an English peer, but the two came to an agreement to marry, with the condition that their relation should be like lover and mistress, thus reserving to each individual freedom. The marriage drifts perilous near to rocks, but in the end, a perfect understanding is reached, and happiness is attained.

"NIGHT COURT" AT EDWARD TALKIES

The human background against which Director W. S. Van Dyke presents this powerful story is impressively symbolic. It presents a cross section of the sordid life of the under-world, with the maudlin drunks and hopeless derelicts, the flotsam and jetsam of despairing humanity. The story centres around an unscrupulous man occupying the position of a magistrate and using his official power to further the criminal activities in which he is involved. When he is threatened with exposure of his misdeeds he manages to "frame" an innocent girl who possesses evidence of his crooked malpractices. A series of sensational incidents, packed with suspence and excitement, bring this fascinating drama to a surprising climax, unravelling a murder mystery, and undoing the wrongs done to the innocents with a deserving fate for the real culprits.

Hollywood Renovation

Among the recent wave of divorces in Hollywood hardly any mention has been made of one famous couple whose marriage lines were not ruled straight. They are the world-renouned star, Princess Gloriana Delice (nee Annie Tripe, of Giggleswick) and her husband, Prgmrgm Prgmskelt, the Croatian film impresario, writes Ian Fox in "Flm Weekly."

* * * *

These two have been trying to get rid of each other for a long time without success. They first tried to get a divorce in Paris, but the Princess could not read French, and by mistake she filled in the wrong form and adopted six children.

* * * *

They went to Reno, but when they were on the last few days of the requisite time of residence in the town, Prgmrgm Prgmskelt demonstrated to a large audience a film he had taken with his latest invention, a camera using an ultra-ultramarine ray which could penetrate walls. The pictures he had taken through the walls of various hotels in Reno were remarkable. Many of the hotel guests were in the audience, and were their faces infra-red? Prgmskelt was immediately chased out of town, with the result that his residence for the purposes of divorce was rendered null and verd.

* * * *

Among the reasons for divorce alleged by the Princess is mental cruelty, i. e., that her husband made love by calling her such things as "my little sckrschkshkhsk," and "my poppity-woppity bnbrrznkkk-plonk." Also, that he photographed her with a new type of film that he had invented with the result that the negative was bought up by a company for use in a horror film. Prgmskelt alleges that the Princess was to blame, not his film.

* * * *

Prgmskelt, in his turn, alleges against her that she insisted on testing his new non-inflamable film by holding a match to it, thereby blowing his laboratory to bits. He also claims damages because the explosion destroyed a newly invented camera on a four-legged tripod.

TRUTH ABOUT LANDI'S "WALK OUT"

The Fox studio did not realise what it was doing when it cast Elissa Landi for the role of an Amazon in "The Warrior's Husband." Amazons were militant ladies, not at all like the quiet creatures heretofore portrayed by Elissa.

The beautiful English actress scored a triumph as the warlike damsel, so Fox placed her in "I Loved You Wednesday," another red-blooded role. Elissa again gave an excellent performance. Alas and alack, she disappeared as soon as the picture was completed. When retakes were ordered for certain scenes, Elissa was on her way to New York.

Miss Landi has returned to Hollywood and says that she did not leave because of any disagreement with studio officials, but that she was entitled to a vacation under the terms of her contract, and did not know anything about the retakes. She admits, however, that she does not wax enthusiastic over "I Am a Widow" which she was scheduled to make at the time of her departure from Hollywood.

At any rate, the studio officials now know that Elissa is 'not' cold!

* * * *

The spectacular rise and fall of a young actress is the theme of "Shooting Star," in which Miriam Hopkins is to appear for Paramount.

* * * *

Douglas Fairbanks, Junr., has gone to Switzerland to recuperate after his recent serious illness and will not return to Hollywood until October. His proposed part in "Design for Living" is to be played by Fredric March.

Sydney Howard, Marjorie Brooks & Winifred Shotter in "NIGHT OF THE GARTER."

Commencing at Wellington Talkies to-day

SCREEN TOPICS

JOAN IS NOT SO OLD——

Joan Crawford wants the whole world to know that she is not twenty-seven years old—as those meany newspapers declared at the time of her divorce Joan swears she doesn't make that weight by two years. As though it mattered.....

THEY CRY "QUITS."

A friendly rivalry seems to have sprung up between Janet Gaynor and Lilian Harvey.

Janet started it by "swiping" Lilian's leading man, Henry Garat, for her co-star in "Adorable." Lilian, of course, played in several films with Garat on the Continent, and he was brought to Hollywood primarily to play opposite her.

But Fox were kind to the British star. They allowed her to choose her future leading man, and Lilian went for Lew Ayres in a big way. Consequently, Fox have signed Lola Lane's ex-husband on long-term contract, and he will be seen opposite Lilian Harvey in her second picture here "My Weakness." Lew Ayres, of course, played opposite Janet in "State Fair."

So now the two girls are crying "quits."

MARY FORESAW IT!

The news of the estrangement between Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks will cause little surprise in film circles, writes the "Picturegoer."

Nearly a year ago, Mary told "Picturegoer" in an interview that she wanted to live her own life.

She hinted even then, that she was prepared to "look the problem of complete divorce in the face, if necessary," and would "stake her future on the common sense of the movie public," as to its effect on her future career.

"I believe that if I make good pictures," she said, "the world will not care if I am married or single, and if I make bad pictures it won't make any difference anyway. I am not living my life for the public and they have no reason to expect me to do so. All I can do is to work my hardest to entertain them and I believe that is all they expect."

SHORT SHOTS.

Paul Muni is to be seen next in "Masquer"—Dick Powell and Ruby Keeler are to be co-starred in "Sweethearts Forever," another musical—Marion Davies has been elected President of the Motion Relief Fund in succession to Conrad Nagel—Kay Francis plays opposite Edward G. Robinson in "Red Meat"—Katherine Hepburn plays a good game of golf—Eleanor Boardman, who recently turned down a British offer, announces her retirement from the screen—Leonora Corbett, who made a good impression in "Love on Wheels," has joined the cast of "Friday the Thirteenth"—Erich von Stroheim is producing an all-children film with 250 juveniles in the cast—there are reports of a new Henry Edwards picture shortly.

Connie Bennet Plans New Romance

Hollywood.—The romance of beautiful Constance Bennett and Marquis Henri de la Falaise, former husband of Gloria Swanson, is on the rocks, and preparations are already being made for a divorce suit.

Announcement of the break is expected immediately upon the return of the Marquis from Honolulu. Miss Bennett, who was formerly the wife of Phil Plant, millionaire, married the Marquis at a spectacular Hollywood wedding in 1931.

Hollywood is full of gossip about the glamorous star, who is said to be the richest in the film city. While the Marquis has been in Honolulu, it is said, she has fallen in love with Gilbert Roland, famous screen villain. It has been openly stated here that she has been recently crouching on the floor of his car in order to avoid being seen.

Since that rumour spread about the couple have been going about together openly.

WHEN HOLLYWOOD DISCARDED MAKE-BELIEF

When "Cavalcade" is seen on the screen of the "Carlton Talkies", Lamington Road, shortly, the public may be interested to know that the great crowd scenes representing London amok on November 11th, 1918, were filmed in Hollywood on November 11th, 1932.

A nice tribute was paid to Frank Lloyd, who directed the film for the Fox Film company, by the ex-servicemen employed in filming these vast crowd scenes.

A letter to Mr. Lloyd signed by Lieut. Stephen Costa (retired) said: "although necessity made the humble roles of 'extras' very welcome to us, many of us felt that it was in the nature of sacrilege that we should be working when the time for the Great Silence arrived. I am asked to tell you that it was with real gratitude that we ex-soldiers responded to the opportunity to remember our comrades who had gone west, at a time when you could have insisted that we get on with our work of filming."

The whole crowd of 8,000 extras assembled on the replica of Trafalgar Square built at the Fox Studio, was invited to listen to a short address by the Bishop Suffragen of Los Angeles, and at 11 a.m. English and American buglers sounded "The Last Post," which brought to a close two minutes of tense and moving silence.

It had been decided that in order to get the real Armistice feeling and atmosphere, the scenes should be filmed on the actual anniversary of the end of the War, but Frank Lloyd insisted that he would not ask the people who were to enact the scenes to forgo paying their annual tribute of respect, so Hollywood saw for the first time a most moving ritual observed seriously inside a studio usually concerned only with make-belief.

N. Y. EASY ON FAVOURABLE CROP REPORTS

Fussia And Trade Buying

BOMBAY OPERATORS SELLING IN LIVERPOOL

Difficult To Maintain Present Prices Without Government Action

Bombay, Aug. 11.

NEW YORK MARKET

In response to easier Liverpool advices and reavy hedge selling the market opened at a decline of 13 to 17 points. The offerings were well absorbed by trade. There was fairly large buying by Russia and prices recovered the opening decline and recorded a rise of 4 points. This was the highest level of the day. In the afternoon favourable crop reports together with weakness of Wall-Street induced long liquidation and prices declined 25 points from the highest level. During the last hour the market was steady and closed at a net decline of 18 to 22 points. Spot cotton prices declined 20 points at 9.65.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

The New Orleans cotton futures market was weak and closed at a decline of 17 points. Spot cotton prices declined 17 points at 9.65c.

BOMBAY SELLING.

The Liverpool cotton futures market opened at a rise of 6 points. There was scattered buying which was followed by hedge selling. Later on there was heavy Bombay selling and local liquidation. Towards the close there was improved buying and the market closed steady at a rise of one to two points. Middling American Spot cotton prices declined 4 points at 6.03d.

EGYPTIAN COTTON.

East Indian cotton futures closed at a rise of 2 points and Egyptian futures were irregular at a decline of 2 points to a rise of 2 points.

The Alexandria Cotton futures market was quiet but steady and closed at a rise of 2 to 11 points.

RISKY TO GO SHORT.

It is now believed that without inflationary measures, it will be difficult to maintain prices in the face of hedge selling. The belief in normal state is justified and although so far there is no Government action, we believe that the Washington administration is watching the developments and will act when they think it fit. In the meantime favourable crop reports are encouraging sales. The technical position of the market. Over bought state at the top of the market is risky and similarly oversold state near the bottom is equally risky. There is no knowing about Government action and we still think it safe to buy moderately for a quick turn.

GOVERNMENT SUPPORT.

Messrs. Thos Smith and Co., state:—

Despite continued trade buying prices eased on liquidation and foreign selling.

It appears the American Government do not desire any sharp upward movement in commodity prices pending the working of the National Recovery Act and readjustment of the position between the prices of raw products and manufactured goods.

Government appear to be buying futures around 9-1/2 cents against options on the leased areas as their unfilled requirements are reported to be from 7 to 10 lakhs bales.

Although market appears likely to be a trading affair for the time being the general opinion is that under no circumstances will Government allow any material setback in prices otherwise their whole economic programme would collapse.

Our Liverpool friends maintain their opinion and advise accumulation in all easy markets.

Liverpool: Our private advices indicate a crop of 13 millions. Think advisable sell longs in Liverpool market.

New York: Crop outlook very favourable. Spot demand Limited. Doubt maintenance present price in the absence of Government action.

BOMBAY COTTON

Bombay, August 11.

In sympathy with a decline of 21 points in New York futures the local market opened at Rs. 210-4 for Broach A.|M. delivery and declined to Rs. 207|12 on nervous long liquidation. To-day for the first time new crop prices reacted a new low level. The market is demoralised in view of favourable crop reports and effective boycott of Indian cotton by Japan discourage buyers. Bull operators have sustained heavy losses and the future course entirely depends upon Bear operators. There is no buyer of cotton in the local market and extensive teji-mandi operations are also playing an important part in the decline. Commission houses and Bazaar operators are liquidating purchases. There exists an overwhelming short interest in the local market.

Liverpool Market opened at a decline of 10 points and later on was 12 points lower. There was increased selling in the Local Market and prices closed at 5-30 p.m. as under:—

SMALL SETBACK IN PRICES

Bombay, Aug. 11

The failure of a Bull operator meet his liabilities in connection with some shares induced some nervous unloading when the share Bazar re-opened to-day at 2 p.m after the settlement which passed off without any failure. It was pointed oct that as far as the market was concerned there was no cause for any anxiety and the timely action as anticipated in closing down the market, averted the crisis. The Board did everything within its power to give all facilities and now the market is in normal condition which can be seen from the working.

Several small operators were following large operations of bull operators and were caught on the long side. These operators now finding no support unloaded their holdings on an unwilling market which passed through some anxiety. It often happens that in times of such crisis, bears always find large offerings and they generally take advantage of such weak moments to cover their short sales without any rise in price.

Apart from the difficulties of the settlement, the sensational decline in cotton prices would have also somewhat bearish effect on mill shares. Thus there is no unnatural decline to-day except in some scrips which were held by weak operators.

As compared with the last close Bombay Dyings are down by Rs. 9/6. Century, Rs. 6/4. Fazal Rs. 14/- New great Rs. 17/- Pearl Rs. 11/- and Swadeshi Rs. 9/- In the miscellaneous section Cements were very steady Bundi gained As. 6/- Indians lost Rs. 2/- while others remained unchanged. Among Hydro-Electric shares Andhras were firm gaining Rs. 5/- but Powers lost Rs. 6/- Trams were quiet at a decline of annas five Tata Steel Share were steady Ordinary shares improved by As. 2/- and Dfrd were down by Re. 1/6, while second Pref Shares gained one point.

Pearls were the centre of attraction, opening at 200 weakened to Rs. 185/- and closed at Rs. 190/-. Dyeings sagged to 780/-. Fazuls came down to 310 to close at 315/-. New Greats were hammered down to Rs. 145/-. Centuries eased to 330 and Nagpores were quiet at 325/-. Andhras opened at 147312 and closed at 1482/8. Tata Powers declined to 1035 to close at 1042/8. Bundles were steady at 26/12. Bombay Burmas opened at 382/8 improved to 390 and closed at 385/-. Steel ordys were done at 56/8 at the outset and closed at 57/-. Deferreds were in demand at 218/12 at the close. 2nd preference found buyers throughout the session. the close being Rs. 97/-.

The immediate future of the market more depends upon the state of cotton prices and several Mills accounts which are due shortly. The market generally expects this group of Mills to show losses and to a great extent the market has discounted these expectations.

MAKING GOOD CITIZENS

Juvenile Court Under New Act

SPECIAL TRAINING

Age Limit for Adult Offenders Raised From 16 to 17.

LONDON, August 10.

A new era in the treatment of children and young persons will be marked by the Children and Young Persons Act of 1933 which will come into force on November 1st.

The Act provides for four kinds of treatment. Firstly a child may be put under supervision which is an extension of the existing system of probation; secondly, a child may be placed under the care of a fit person; thirdly a child may be ordered to undergo training of a special kind at a school approved by the Home Secretary; fourthly, the court may order a parent or guardian to enter into a recognizance and exercise proper guardianship.

The Home Office is anxious to establish a better type of remand home and to appoint specially qualified men and women as justices. The Act raises the age limit for Adult offenders from 16 to 17 and provides for more attention to be paid to the organisation of juvenile courts which, as far as possible, are to be entirely removed from ordinary police courts. Need is felt of courts which are not sentimental but sympathetic and should act in the capacity of a parent.

A number of offences committed by young persons points to the need for these reforms. No fewer than 21 per cent of indictable offences in 1931 were committed by persons under 16. Experience has shown that it is better to deal with young persons at 14 or 15 than later.

Thus the percentage of successes in industrial schools is 85 to 90 per cent., whereas the figures for borstal institutions dealing with children at a later age are 65 per cent.

The Home Office has sent a circular to magistrates, local authorities and the police explaining the Act accompanied by the rules for interpretation, and pointing out that the object of the Juvenile Court is not to punish but to make a good citizen.—B.O.W.

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEWS

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Bombay, Aug. 11

MONEY.

Money was somewhat steadier this week with call funds quoted at about 1-1/4 per cent. The comperative tightness this week is largely due to funds being required in connection with gold settlement. Also maturities of treasury bills last week were smaller than renewals by about Rs. 33.75 lacs, while in this week fresh sales amounted to Rs. 150 lacs, maturities were only a crore. The payment to the market on the other hand through sales of sterling to Government were comparatively small last week, although nearly Rs. 130 lacs will come on the market this week through this source. It may however be noted that about Rs. 8 crores are due for repayment on the outstanding 6 per cent 1933-36 bonds on the 15th inst. and thus the outlook of the money market would appear to be easier. The trade demand as per the latest statement of the Bank shows a decline of about Rs. 25 lacs. The following are the fixed deposit rates:—One to three months 1 per cent and six months 1-1/4 per cent.

IMPERIAL BANK.

The statement of the Imperial Bank as on August 4, 1933 shows a fall of Rs. 286.70 lacs in the cash balance of the Bank now standing at Rs. 24,89,00,000 as compared with Rs. 26.03 crores at this time last year. The percentage of cash to liabilities is 30.35, a decrease of 2.74 per cent under last week. Loans, Cash Credits and Inland Bills discounted are all down by Rs. 2.99 lacs, Rs. 9.11 lacs and by Rs 10.73 lacs respectively. Government deposits are down by Rs. 182.63 lacs to Rs. 7.08 crores and other Deposits by Rs. 4.26 lacs to Rs. 73.94 crores. Government securities show a rise of Rs. 132.15 lacs to Rs. 41.55 lacs. The bank rate continues unchanged at 3-1/2 per cent.

GILT-EDGED MARKET

Gilt-edged were steady throughout the week with minor price changes and investment demand continues in short as well as long term loans. In regard to 3-1/2 per cent Paper bull operators took profit on rising prices and thus while the quotation of 3-1/2 per cent India sterling stocks advanced from £82-1/2 to £84, the price of 3-1/2 per cent rupee paper moved within the narrow range of Rs. 85-4 and Rs. 85-11. 3-1/2 per cent 1947-50 New Loan remained almost steady at Rs. 94-13. 4 per cent 1960-70 loan is quoted at Rs. 98, 1934-37 at Rs. 101-13 and 1943s at Rs. 101-14. 4-1/2 per cent 1955-60 loan was placed at Rs. 105-7 and 1934 bonds at Rs. 102-8. 5 per cent old due 1939-44 showed no change at Rs 106-12 and 1940-43s at Rs. 106-13. 5 per cent 1945-55 tax free loan changed hands at Rs. 113-1. 5-1/2 per cent 1938-40 loan was unaltered at Rs. 108. 6-1/2 per cent Bombay Development Loan closed at Rs. 107-15 and 6-1/2 per cent Treasury Bonds at Rs. 107-9.

TREASURY BILLS.

EXCHANGE.

Sterling exchange was steady both for near and forward deliveries, sellers of ready T. T. quoted at 1s. 6-1/32d. and buyers at 1s. 6-5/64d upto end of the year. Tenders for sterling were quite large amounting to £2,070,000 and Government allotted approximately 48 per cent at 1s. 6-1/16. Fresh sales of gold for export, particularly for forward deliveries and the appearance of small merchandise export bills in the local as well as in outside markets account for the presnt situation. The enquiry for remittances on the other hand remains very small.

The dollar sterling quotation after declining from 4.53 dollars to 4.47 dollars improved and closed at 4.00 dollars. The Paris-London cross rate remained almost steady throughout the week moving between 84.59 and 84.37. The Belga and the Italian lira closed at 23.72 and 63.03 respectively.

GOLD.

Prices in the gold market were maintained throughout the week with a steady undertone. The quotation for gold ranged between 30-13-0 and Rs. 30-12-0 and a fair amount of business for export in ready as well as in forward delivery is reported to have been done during this week. Arrivals of gold from up-country are still fair and stocks on hand are estimated at about 6-1/2 lacs tolas, wtih the daily offtake averaging some 3,000 to 4,000 tolas. The quotation in the local market has reached almost export parity and it appears that premium on forward in outside markets has narrowed. Price movements in sovereigns were negligible, ready moving between 19-11-9 and Rs. 19-10-9 and forward between Rs. 19-12-0 and Rs. 19-11-0. In London the quotation for gold after improving from 124s. 6d. to 124s. 9d. declined and closed at 124s. 8d. Last week's shipment per s.s. "Comorin" amounted to Rs. 75.74 lacs. In our market the highest and lowest rates were Rs. 30-13-0 and Rs. 30-12 for ready. Rs. 30-13-3 and Rs. 30-12-0 for 7th August settlement and Rs. 30-14-0 and Rs. 30-13-0 for September 5 settlement. The total imports during the week amounted to Rs 125,604 in bar and coin.

SILVER.

A hesitant tone once again prevailed in the silver market this week following renewed rumours in connection with the change in the import duty on silver into India. This caused the holders of ready silver unload covering against forward purchases thus occasioning a discount of as much as 12 annas on ready silver as compared with September settlement. The price of ready declined from Rs. 56-0 to Rs. 55-8, while that for September settlement is practically unchanged at Rs. 56-6. So long as this uncertainty continues, trading in the local market is likely to be restricted. The daily offtake shows no better than 25 bars, while stocks are heavy at approximately 10,000 bars. In Shanghai the dollar rate was almost steady at around 1s. 3d. The highest and lowest rates in London were 18-1/16 and 17-7/8d. for ready and 18-1/8d. and 18d. for forward. In our market the highest and lowest rates were Rs. 56-0 and Rs. 55-8 for ready, Rs. 56-1 and Rs. 55-8 for August 10 settlement and Rs. 56-7 and Rs. 56-3 for September 9 settlement. The total imports during the week amounted to Rs. 17,000 in coin.

SHARES.

The share market was closed for most of the days for settlement and did not reopen yesterday owing to the technical position for the forward market causing a delay in the settlement of final accounts in connection with the current settlement. The settlement, however, passed off smoothly and normal trading is resumed. During the two working days, prices tended to be steadier both in the cotton mill shares and in the miscellaneaus section. The following are the fluctuations in some of the leaders:—Bombay Dyeing Rs. 795-790; Century Rs. 238/2-236/4; Central India Rs. 331/4-330; Crescent Rs. 57/8; Fazulbhoy Rs. 332/8-327/8; Kohinoor Rs. 165/10-163/12; New Great Rs. 165-162/8; Pearls Rs. 226/4-220; Simplex Rs. 84/6-85; and Swadeshi Rs. 261/14-260.

In the miscellaneous section, Tata Iron Ordys. closed at Rs. 56-14 and Tata Defds. at Rs. 220. Tata Hydros improved from Rs. 161-9 to Rs. 163-7 while Tata Powers were quieter at Rs. 1043-12, and Andhra Valleys at Rs. 1477-8. Alcock shares gained about 4 rupees to Rs. 203/12. Bombay Burmahs after rising from Rs. 398-12 to Rs. 403-12 declined and closed at Rs. 392-8. Bombay Trams were almost unchanged at Rs. 139-6 and Bombay Steams at Rs. 287-8. Scindia Steam shares were easier and closed at Rs. 11-4. Cement shares were dull, with no change in prices. Bundis closed at Rs. 26-10, Indian Cements at Rs. 296-4 and Katni Ordys. at Rs. 294-6 with Defds. at Rs. 1060. Among railway shares Ahmed. Prantij closed at last week's level of Rs. 802-8 and Tapti Valleys at Rs. 702-8.

Imperial Bnk shares showed no price changes, the closing quotation being Rs. 1202-8 and Contributories at Rs. 296-4. Bank of India shares were steady at Rs. 102-8xd. and those of the Central Bank at Rs. 23-12.

LONDON, Aug. 10

Headley for the West Indies played a brilliant innings against Warwickshire and hit up 182 in 4 hours. Eighty of his runs came through boundaries. He was out to a hitwicket. When he attempted a legstroke the ball struck him on the chin and he was carried to the pavilion in dazed condition. Merry's 146 took him only 2 hours 20 minutes. He hit two 6's, one of which was all run, and he reached the ropes no less than nineteen times.

WOOLLEY SCORES RAPIDLY

Woolley did a bit of quick scoring hoisting his individual half century in 47 minutes. He mainly scored with cuts and drives and treated Mitchell's attack severely. He made 104 in ninety-five minutes, and had added 27 by the lunch interval. His 161 took him five minutes under three hours. His score included five 6's and seventeen boundaries.

Pothecary's 118 is the highest score of his career, and he stayed at the crease for 3 hours and 35 minutes in the course of which he hit to the ropes thirteen times.

Keeton executed crisp and perfectly timed strokes, and made some ondrives. He hoisted his individual 50 in ten minutes under two hours. He stayed at the wicket for 3½ hours for his 110 which included eleven 4's.

Carr was at the crease for 2 hours 20 minutes for his 84 including one sixer and ten boundaries.

HOBBS' STEADY KNOCK.

Surrey had an uphill fight against Sussex. Hobbs played a very steady game in his first innings, and his 58 took him 2 hours and 10 minutes. But his stay at the wicket in the second knock was shortlived. He was out in less than half an hour.

HAMMOND HITS OUT.

Hammond played dashing cricket and took only an hour and a quarter for his 86 not out, 56 of which came through boundaries. With Barnett after tea he added 76 in 35 minutes.

Turner took an hour and a quarter for his individual 50, and his 83 included one 6 and five 4's. Rhodes made his 50 in as many minutes. With Bowes who hit Astill for 6 Rhodes added 36 in only twenty minutes for the last wicket. Rhodes reached the ropes five times.—Reuter's Special.

Factory of Poisons!

"Because a poison does not take immediate effect, it does not, on that account, follow that it is less dangerous" — Lessing

IN THE HUMAN SYSTEM

there is a PoisonFactory the picture of which is at the top. It produces poisons which may not take immediate effect but the poisons are not the less dangerous!

Appendicitis, Auto-intoxication, Enteritis, High Blood-pressure, Piles, and Tuberculosis are but a few of the many dreaded diseases that these poisons have caused when they accumulate in the system.

Constipation and failure to completely evacuate the bowels are the direct causes for the formation of these poisons. No less than 90% suffer from this malady but, a majority of these imagine that their evacuation is complete and thorough when it is really not so!

It is the latter who are mostly disillusioned when it is too late to correct their tragic ailments because, they are the least to feel when poisons slowly and steadily accumulate.

Do You Know?

That the great many Laxatives on the market while partially ejecting the poisons eject the nutritive material and fluid? That these false Laxatives give only a false security? That they are positively injurious to the intestines & the whole system? That they "lower" physical condition & make physical wrecks of their votaries?

JAPAN'S "RIGHT TO LIVE"

London Embassy Denies Employment Of Sweated Labour In Japan In Its Pamphlet On Trade Competition

The Japanese Embassy is circulating a pamphlet on "Japan and Trade Competition: Some Facts," by Mr. S. Matsuyama, Commercial Counsellor of the Embassy, which is designed to meet current British criticism, says the "Manchsster Guardian."

This begins by asserting Japan's "right to live". The real position in regard to Japanese competition, Mr. Matsuyama says, "is nothing more than that Japan has a vital and efficient industrial organisation and that organisation is pursuing its natural and healthy development. You can scarcely blame Japan for having that necessary industrial organisation, or blame that organisation for developing.....

NO "SLAVE LABOUR".

"We obviously must export if we are to live. If all countries put up insurmountable tariff barriers against Japan millions of people would starve. The same, incidentally, applies to Britain. It seems, therefore, a somewhat dangerous example for certain interests in Britain to cry for tariffs against Japan or any ither country."

Mr. Matsuyama quotes largely from the report of the International Labour Office on Japan, the recent report issued by the Department of Overseas Trade, Mr. Arno Pearse's report on the Japanese cotton industry, and the report of the British Economic Mission and Cotton Mission to the Far East. He reminds his leaders that Japan is a twentieth-century country with great cities, electricity, wireless, motor vehicles, electrified railways, cinemas, and a great newspaper press. "If wages in Japan were, as critics in Britain allege, "starvation wages, or if there were any truth in the absurd statements that we employ 'slave labour' then the Japanese Government would very soon feel the people's disfavour. But how often do you hear of industrial strife in Japan?"

WAGES

On wages Mr. Matsuyama complains that comparisons based on the depreciated exchange do not give a fair impression. "While the yen exchange—that is to say, the external value—has fallen, its internal value or purchasing power has so far remained fairly constant. At the same time wages show a definite tendency to rise at the present moment..... The workers were able to buy about 50 per cent more with their wages at the end of 1930 than in 1926."

"The lowest cash wages paid in the cotton industry are about seven yen per week for male workers and about five yen for females. The highest 21 yen in each case. Add to these rates a further 3.50 yen at least for indirect wage contributions and the figures are respectively 10.50 yen (21s.) 3.50 yen (17s.), and 24.50 yen (£2 9s.).

"These are minimum figures and certain classes of mill workers in Britain will be found to be earning little more—and they have to live with the cost of living at the figure it stands in Britain. There are thousands of agricultural labourers in Britain—full-grown men with families—earning less than £1 8s. a week."

Mr. Matsuyama declares that Japan's social services "are on a level with anything that is accorded to workers in the most highly developed industrial countries to-day." He points out that a country cannot raise its social standard if it is not afforded an outlet for its activities in international commerce.

Various quotations are given to disprove charges of the subsidising of Japanese industry and to show Japanese efficiency, and Mr. Matsuyama makes play with the criticisms of Lancashirt in the repirt of the British Economic Mission to the Far East. "Certain interests in the Lancashire cotton industry (he adds) are the chief complainants about Japan. They are even asking the British Government to subsidise them. What have they to say about this straight criticism—by people of their own country—of their marketing efficney?"

YEN

Mr. Matsuyama admits that the depreciation of the yen gives Japan an advantage in her export trade for the time being, but urges that it is bound soon to be offset by the increased cost of imports. He declares that Japan desires stablity of the yen—"it is a vital necessity to her export trade." He denies that Japan depreciated the yen as a matter of policy, on this point contesting a statement of the Federation of British Industries. He notes that in the trade between the two countries the balance has until recently been heavily against Japan and concludes: "With encouragement there is room for a considerable expansion of British exports to Japan: but it must be a matter of give and take—British exports and Japanese imports growing side by side."

EAST AFRICAN CONGRESS

Alarm At Kenya Europeans' Bid For Power

"NO JUSTIFICATION FOR CHANGE"

British Government To Stand By Select Committee's Decision

SIMLA, Aug. 11.

In the third week of June, the Government of India received a representation from the East African National Congress to the effect that there was a move on the part of European non-officials in Kenya to press His Majesty's Government for further control in the Colony's Government.

About the middle of July they made further representation that the European settlers were demanding creation of a Statutory Finance Committee with a European elected majority.

On receipt of each representation the Government of India made urgent inquiries from the Secretary of State, as to the exact position, and requested that if any changes in the policy regarding the constitution of the Colony were contemplated both they and the Indian community in Kenya should be given adequate notice and opportunity to place the Indian point of view before His Majesty's Government.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S INTENTION.

Information has now been received from the Secretary of State for Colonies, who had also received representation from the East African Indian National Congress submitting that no justification existed for any such constitutional change as the creation of a Statutory Finance Committee with a European elected majority, that he has requested the officer administering Government of Kenya to invite the attention of the East African National Congress to the reply given to he Right Hon'ble Capt. F. Guest, M.P., on June 21 in the House of Commons and to the official report of the debate on the Colonial Office vote on July 14 in which Sir P. Cunliffe-Lister reiterated the intention of His Majesty's Government to stand by the findings of the Joint Select Committee of Parliament of East Africa.

IMPORTANCE OF OFFICIAL MAJORITY.

It will be remembered that in paragraph 75 of their report the Joint Select Committee on "closer union" of East Africa stated that the control of His Majesty's Government in United Kingdom must remain unimpaired and that in para 96|98 of the same reports the importance of official majority in the Legislative Council of Kenya was emphasised.—A.P.

FRANCE STRENGTHENS WATCH ON RHINE

(Special Cable).

LONDON, August 11.

France is strengthening her watch on the Rhine in order to prevent any recurrence of the local incidents such as those occurred at Huningue, when the Brown Shirts invaded the international bridge of boats across the river, hurled epithets at the customs officials, to which the latter took exception.

Troops from the Mulhouse Garrison were detailed to guard the frontier Huningue, Kambs (?) and Chalampe (?) to protect the electric power works and the defensive works, forming a new chain of defences along the Eastern Frontier.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE
SATURDAY, AUGUST 12, 1933

A DISCREDITED OPTIMIST

Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru said the obvious in the course of the statement which he made to the Press immediately he landed on Indian soil on Thursday. He had nothing new or startling to say, but there was an unaccustomed note of pessimism running through the interview. "Any advance on the White Paper seems to be wholly out of the question", he said, and, he will not be surprised if even that is whittled down through the joint efforts of the Die-Hard politicians who are in such strength just at present.

Both Sir Tej Bahadur and his companion, Mr. M. R. Jayakar, had often told the public that they would not accept the White Paper proposals and that they were going to England to improve them. When he now tells us that India cannot expect anything better and she should be thankful if she gets even that, it is pertinent to ask if that is what he went there to co-operate for? Sir Tej Bahadur and his friends know that the White Paper constitution is altogether unacceptable to India, but he tells us preposterously that India cannot have anything better, since Sir Samuel Hoare is fighting for India "within the limits of the White Paper."

BUT STILL AN OPTIMIST?

Sir Tej Bahadur says also, that the White Paper constitution will not come into existence before 1935 and he is very vague and indefinite about the Federal scheme, everything being in a fluid condition. Of course, as an optimist, he did not "anticipate any serious difficulty" as he hoped Indian States would easily come into the net to satisfy the "amour propre" of Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru and his constant companion.

We do not know whether he was drawing liberally on his imagination in making this statement, for, as far as facts and other circumstances go, there is not the least chance of the Federal scheme coming into force for another eight or nine years, if everything goes on smoothly. Perhaps, it may not materialise at all, for the Princes have not shown themselves very eager to oblige either Sir Tej Bahadur or Mr. Jayakar, or anyone else, in this matter, though in their own interests it would be better for them to enter the Federation and ensure their autocracy and privileges.

REALISATION AT LAST.

It is apparent, in spite of all this show of optimism, from his statement that he is going to retire from active politics, Sir Tej Bahadur realises that he is a broken man politically. We do not know whether he was serious in all that he said but there can be very little doubt, that what has happened in Britain has made him realise that he has been pursuing a chimera all these months, though even now he has given a watching brief to Mr. Jayakar who is still in all humility waiting to receive a few crumbs—or possibly kicks.

If our conclusions are right, then what is the next step which Sir Tej Bahadur should take as a patriotic Indian? What justification had he and his friends for going to England to plough the arid sands of co-operation despite the wishes of Congressmen, Liberals and the whole country? When the entire country was solidly opposed to the White Paper, it was these people who went out of their way and ran between Bombay, Allahabad and Simla on their mission of peace, which they should have known was hopeless.

HIS RESPONSIBILITY.

Now that Mahatma Gandhi is again in jail and the White Paper constitution almost inevitable, Sir Tej Bahadur tells us that he is going to mope at Allahabad and find solace in his briefs! This may be a consolation to him, after badly letting down the whole country, but does he realise the really criminal injury he has done to his country by the breach he created in the front that ought to have been presented to Britain? Both he and Mr. Jayakar have betrayed the interests of India by working on the Joint Committee, and he cannot so easily escape public condemnation. He has strengthened the hands of the opponents of India's claims at a time when even the Liberal Party had turned its back on the Government. Were it not for them, we doubt even whether the Government could have maintained their intransigeant attitude against the Congress. It ill becomes him now to pose before his countrymen and as an ill-used and injured innocent.

Bullying Burma

The full text of Sir Samuel Hoare's memorandum on Burma makes it abundantly clear that the Government are determined not only to deprive that province of the right to choose between Separation and Federation but to foist a reactionary constitution on it. The right to decide for separation or against it belongs to the people themselves; and the Government, which has once conceded it, may precipitate a grave crisis if they now deprive them of it. Sir Samuel now coolly declares, that it is the Joint Committee that will "have to make their recommendations for or against Separation," on the specious plea that Burma did not make her choice clearly enough when she was given a chance to do so.

We have already pointed out that the plea is unwarranted by facts and that, in any case, there should be no objection to the Burma Council interpreting more fully and clearly its own resolution passed at its last session. The present Council, the result of a referendum on the issue of separation, ought to have the final say on that issue, whatever authority the Joint Committee may have to devise a constitution on the basis of Separation or Federation, as determined by the Council.

It is amazing, however, that the Governor of Burma in his address to the present session of the Council, has the temerity to declare that, while the Council may generally discuss Sir Samuel's memorandum, it may not record an opinion or raise the issue of Separation. Where has the Governor found the right to gag the Council in this matter? The very attempt to do so is audacious. To proclaim a referendum on the issue of Separation, in the hope probably of a verdict in favour of Separation, and to gag the Council when the verdict does not suit the book of the Government is really the limit of political dishonesty. The Council should refuse to be dragooned into silence by the Government in this bullying fashion.

The Governor very graciously suggests that ten members from Burma may go as a delegation to be consulted by the Joint Committee. Humiliating as it is for the delegation not to share at least equal authority with the Committee in devising the details of the future constitution, it is intolerable that the delegates are only to plead before the Committee even on the basic principle of Separation. Whether Burma should or should not join the Federation is certainly an important question. But for the time being the vital issue is, who is to decide that question. We trust Burma will insist on answering it herself, realising that to allow an alien body to decide it for her is an indelible national disgrace.

A Majority Demand

Even those who disagree with the Dawoodi Bohras' demand for exemption from the Wakf Act must be impressed by the tenacity with which the community holds to its determination that their Wakfs and religious and charitable trusts shall remain outside the purview of the measure. That their claim runs counter to the views generally held by Mussalmans throughout the country is in their contention a fact without relevance to the merits of their demand, since as a self-contained community within the Mussalman faith they claim the right to decide for themselves the merits of any question which affects their community and their community alone.

The history of the Wakf Act and the circumstances which have led to the present agitation, to which expression was given at the crowded meeting at the Cawasji Jehangir Hall on Friday, justifies the claim that is put forward by the leaders of the community for exemption of its provisions. The measure was brought into the Assembly ten years ago with the cordial approval of Mussalmans all over India, for the purpose of regulating, according to modern civilised practice, the administration of religious trusts and making those in charge of them legally responsible for the production of clear accounts. Public opinion, there is no doubt, in the Mussalman communities desired the enactment in order to correct the laxity that was notoriously prevalent, and the measure had an easy passage through the Legislature. But, on account of the strong representations put forth by the Dawoodi Bohras, who hold as an unalterable doctrine, that all authority in the religious affairs of the community resides, by divine order, in the person of its spiritual head, the Mullaji Saheb, a provision was inserted empowering a Local Government to exempt any community from its operation if it was satisfied that the community itself wished it. On a strict interpretation of this provision technically the demand for exemption is really unanswerable. And, soon after the passing of the Act, exemption was granted to the Bohras for a period of three years. Since the expiry of that period the question of further exemption has been in suspense, though a Committee appointed by the Government of Bombay has advised against it.

The matter is now coming before the Legislative Council in connection with a Bill for which Mr. Syed Munawar is responsible. In addition, the community are seeking sanction to introduce a Bill in the Central Legislature conferring definite and permanent exemption. It seems that abstract doctrines and general principles, however much we may hold to the wide view that the administration of charitable trusts should be carried on under some sort of supervision and State control, have little application in this affair. That the overwhelming majority of the Dawoodi Bohra community strongly—say, if you will, fanatically—support the demand for exemption, is undeniable. And since exemption can apply only to those trusts and funds which belong to the community and can affect none else, it is legitimate to hold that the Legislatures should respect their wishes, which are founded on strong religious conviction.

It is, after all, their own affair, and so long as the majority of them hold so strongly to the demand, it should be conceded. Years of effort on the part of a small minority of the community to convert the majority and the influence of outside Muslim opinion has failed to convert the majority. It has left them indeed, more strongly entrenched in their belief and it is useless to expect that their view will change. It is time this troublesome question was disposed of and the best way of doing it is to leave the Dawoodi Bohras to the continued enjoyment of the doubtful privilege of the control of their trusts by a religious head, whose recognised infallibility as the directly inspired instrument of divine authority, the Pope of Rome might well envy.

PROBLEM FOR CHRISTIAN COMMUNITIES

Evils Of Exodus Of Women From Villages To Bombay

That my article under the caption of "The Lure of the City—A Grave Problem for Christians," published in this paper's issue of the 27th ultimo, has served as an eye-opener to Christian leaders in Mangalore, is apparent from a strongly worded article by Mr. M. S. Shresta, the reputed M.L.C. of that place in the "Konkni Dirven," a fortnightly of Mangalore

Both Mr. Shresta and the editor, the latter in his vernacular commentary, while reproducing certain paragraphs from my article above referred to, concur that the problem confronting the community with regard to curbing of the evil produced by emigration of females to Bombay for domestic service is of such gravity as to warrant immediate action by both the clergy and the laity, and have put forward suggestions whereby the exodus of young girls to this City could be successfully controlled.

A MISCOMPREHENSION.

The Editor views my article as "washing the home dirt at others' door-steps." This is surely a display of indignation at the effulgence of Christian evils in a cosmopolitan paper thus exposing the matter widely among non-Christians. It is here where he is mistaken. The article in question was intended to awaken, not only the Mangalorean section of the Christian community, but also Goan and Madras Christians alike, since the problem has swollen to the most disgraceful dimensions. It was also intended to expose those malignant employers who deliberately employ young ayahs and abigails on such fascinating scales of pay for reasons too appalling to mention. Such families, I am inclined to state in a word, are nothing better than those immoral women whom they engage.

BORN IN 1926.

It is recalled that, as long ago as 1926, Mr. Shresta had occasion to draw attention to this evil, in an address delivered by him before the South Kanara Catholic Association, when he said, "While I am speaking on the question of emigration, I must refer to the exodus of women who go to Bombay for domestic service. The general opinion of well-informed people appears to be that this is wholly harmful in view of the conditions at Bombay. As this exodus is taking place from different parishes, it seems to be desirable that the Vicars of various parishes should be requested to send reports in regard to such emigration and that a sub-committee of the Association should

Frankly Speaking

INTOLERABLE NAZIS

Nazi atrocities are at last rousing the European countries to action, and there is bound to be a clash sooner or later, if the Nazis continue their antics.

They are not only attacking Austria, and killing Austrian nationals, but invading foreign territory in pursuit of their terrorism. How long can they go on with these acts, without being brought to book?

At the same time, they are arresting all sorts of persons, who are afterwards called Communists as an excuse for their incarceration. In these days when it is so easy for the Nazis to kill men without being punished, it is not difficult to spread lies about the victims in their power in the concentration camps, suffering all the rigours of a brutal regime.

The German reply to British and French protests is considered to be insolent, but the two Governments seem inexplicably timid about giving the suitable reply to this insolence.

UNCONVINCING

The replies given by the Bengal Home Member about the Calcutta Congress incidents are far from convincing and certainly do not enhance the credit of the police raj in that unfortunate province.

They stick to the version of the assaults given by the Police Commissioner to the Government of Bengal and by the latter to the Secretary of State for India, though it has been completely discredited.

If the Government version is correct, there can be no harm in holding an inquiry to bring the guilt of Pundit Madan Mohan Malaviya home to him. At present, so far as the public are concerned, the Pundit's version stands.

The Bengal Home Member tried to carry things high-handedly by refusing to give further information to the Council, and repeating what he has said many times before.

It was not a creditable performance. Sir John Anderson must do something more to rehabilitate the confidence of the public in the Police, if such a thing is possible in Bengal.

PROVOKED INTO RESISTANCE.

The conviction of Mr. Devidas Gandhi shows how Civil Disobedience is often thrust upon persons.

He went to Delhi on purely private business in order, it is said, to work on the editorial staff of the "Hindustan Times". But the moment he arrived at the Delhi station he was served with a notice to refrain from entering Delhi province and in case he had already entered it, to depart immediately".

Not to precipitate matters, he informed the authorities that he had no intention to participate in Civil Disobedience and further accommodated them by waiting at the station for over two hours, expecting the withdrawal of the order meanwhile. Yet he was arrested and convicted for not leaving Delhi province immediately.

The order served on him was absolutely unnecessary, as the authorities themselves would have discovered, if they had held their soul in patience for a few days.

At least after receiving an assurance from him they could have withdrawn the order. But as it is, they have to thank themselves for this act of Civil Disobedience.

HELP FOR THE BHILS

The Government have at last recognised the fact that there was serious distress in the Panch Mahals among the Bhils, though they were unwilling to admit its gravity at first.

The relief given has been very meagre. According to their Press Note Government have so far spent Rs. 1,400, and at the end of July they had exactly 12 men in employment on their relief works.

On the other hand, the District Local Board and the Dohad Municipality are still giving employment to 853 persons, and the Mahajan of Dohad and the public of Bombay have given their quota in this direction.

The Press Note says that the condition of the Bhils is on the "whole fair and free from anxiety." That is rather unfair to the Bhils, and is likely to mislead the public and stop the flow of public relief, which is still badly needed. It is the duty of the public to continue their help to the starving people. Good rain alone will not relieve starvation, all at once.

THE TERRIBLE DRAIN.

Referring to Mr. Lansbury's recent denunciation in the Commons of "the terrible drain of the resources of India", the "Daily Mail" accuses him of "disregard of fact" and wholly denies the charge of British exploitation of India.

So far as the drain is concerned, it is an ancient and unshakable fact that has been proved again and again since Dadabhoy Naoroji demonstrated it with figures taken mostly from blue books.

It is in fact the "Daily Mail" that is guilty of a perverse disregard of facts. Mr. Lansbury justly described as a "terrible drain" the reckless expenditure of the resources of Indians "for the maintenance of the British Army and of the whole administration and the amount spent in this country on pensions and on services that are carried on here."

The biggest fact about the drain is that the whole country is now denouncing it and also the questionable attempts to perpetuate the drain through the Safeguards.

Readers' Views

LIFE IS A GAMBLE

From "Hammenoor."

Some of your correspondents were eloquent over the "vice" of gambling. But I would request them to note that our very existence is a great gamble. We are gamblers all in some form or the other.

What are the Princes of Europe doing at present? They are gambling away their rights over their crowns for the sake of their sweethearts. When you marry against the expressed wishes of your parents, family, friends and community, are you not gambling away your inheritance? You are. But you are prepared to undergo sorrow and suffering for the sake of your idea—right or wrong. Such gambles or sacrifices, call them what you will, lead in the end to the betterment of humanity; for they uphold the cause of personal liberty.

India to-day badly requires a huge mass of gamblers. Let the different communities of India gamble away their petty rights and privileges, let them stand united as Indians only, let them demand manhood suffrage, and no power on earth can keep them in chains of iron or gold.

We are told that poor, ignorant people can be saved, in spite of themselves, from the curse of gambling by legislative enactments. This is a delusion. But what laws cannot do, personal experience can. For one's own experience is his best teacher. A poor man puts his four-anna piece on the chance of a wheel. But when he loses that to recover it, he puts his entire day's earning. When he finds that this is also gone, he concludes that gambling is not a paying proposition, and gives it up.

But if goaded by emotionalism, he obstinately refuses to learn by experience, no laws, however stringent, can prevent him from staking his all on the gambling-wheel. Just as even the majority vote against the disadvantageous and profitless resolution of individual civil disobedience at the Poona Conference could not deter India's singular optimist and supreme gambler, Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, from opposing the order of the constituted authority and having his last throw of the dice.

ALL-INDIA DAY FOR THE BLIND

From R. D. Naegamvala.

India has some 50 lakhs of blind men and women. Sixty per cent. of these should not have been blind at all. These figures convey a vivid idea of the tremendous national loss.

In State-aided Ophthalmic hospitals and dispensaries, over three lakhs of patients were treated for eye troubles in 1930, and so, may I approach through you, the Press of India and the general public, to help me to have an All-India Day for the Blind, on Thursday, the 7th September, 1933?

Organisations should be started in all the principal cities of this vast country and subscriptions collected by functions such as Cinemas, dances, theatrical shows, etc., in aid of this deserving cause. I am willing to collect the sums and to issue receipts for them and to help those really in need from the funds.

Mrs. Naegamvala and I appeal to all and sundry in the name of humanity to make this day a success.

AN ABSURD REPORT

From Dr. D. R. Prem.

In reply to the letter from "Curiosity" entitled "Information Wanted" and published in your issue of the 8th inst. I have to say that the statement put into my mouth by the reporter of "Venkateshwar Samachar" is wholly wrong.

Nobody can imagine Tulsidas being discussed in medical examinations anywhere in the world. Had I read the report of my speech in the said paper, I would have contradicted it immediately. What I said in my presidential speech was that many English examiners in Hindi (attached to various institutions in England) knew more about Tulsidas than many Indian students who appeared for those examinations.

These remarks pertained to examinations in General Knowledge (Matriculation, etc.) which I had also to take, and not to the medical examinations profuse.

INDIAN PRESS AND VACCINATION

From L. Loat. Secty. National Anti-Vaccination League.

It has long been a source of surprise to students of public questions that many Indian newspaper editors appear to accept blindly official assurances on the question of vaccination and decline to consider the matter for themselves. Might I ask such newspaper editors to allow both sides of this important matter to be presented to their readers.

For some years the editor of "John Bull," a weekly paper with an enormous circulation in England, published articles against vaccination, including a valuable one by Lady Maud Warrender, which she has reprinted in her Memoirs published under the title "My First Sixty Years." "Truth," a paper known all over the world, some nine years ago published articles against vaccination by Dr. Hadwen and other articles in favour of the operation and after a number of articles on both sides had been printed, the editor came to the conclusion that the case against vaccination had been completely established. From that time he came out definitely against vaccination.

For many years the London "Star," under the editorship of Mr. Ernest Parke, J.P., strongly opposed vaccination. In the days when Mr. Pethwick-Lawrence edited the now defunct "Echo," the anti-vaccination point of view was always allowed a hearing. Quite recently the editor of the London "Daily Telegraph," who himself is a believer in vaccination, allowed a large number of letters for and against vaccination to appear in his columns. Even our London "Times," has on many occasions published anti-vaccination letters. Most of the Provincial newspapers are willing, on occasion, to open their columns to the anti-vaccination point of view, even though the editors may not be willing to study our side.

During the last fortnight several letters opposing the germ theory of disease have been published in the "Daily Mirror," a London newspaper with a very large circulation.

Indian newspaper editors will, therefore, be following the precedent established by quite a number of reputable English newspaper editors if they allow the anti-vaccination point of view to be ventilated in their columns. Very distinguished people have decided against vaccination after prolonged study of the records of small-pox and vaccination in various countries.

HOUSE RENTS IN BOMBAY

From "Dattaram."

It is very encouraging to note that Mr. R. R. Bakhale is going to introduce a Bill in the Bombay Legislative Council to control house rents in the City. But at the same time, it is very painful to find that the middle and poor class people, for whose benefit the Bill is intended to be, are absolutely indifferent about it.

At least, the educated classes should have realized that, unless an universal cry against the present exorbitant house rents is raised, neither the landlords nor Government will come forward to their help. The mentality of landlords, whether they are Congressmen, Liberals or Labourites, is the same everywhere and unless there is a strong and united propaganda carried in favour of the Bill it will have little support in the Council and, if Government opposes it or remains neutral, it will have no chance of passing into law. The need of such legislation is more felt at present owing to general depression and unemployment to a great extent, and it will be wrong to surmise from the apathy of the public that there is no popular demand for it.

There is a good opportunity at present for the tenant classes to enlist sympathy of the public in support of the Bill. In scores of localities and groups of chawls meetings are being held to collect subscriptions and fix programmes of the forthcoming 'Ganapati' festival. The leaders of such meetings will do a great service to the cause if they explain the intention of the Bill to the people and pass resolutions in its favour and forward them to newspapers, Government and Mr. Bakhale. I hope the suggestion will not go in vain.

DAWOODI BOHRAS DEMAND EXEMPTION FROM WAKF ACT

Government Were Influenced By Hostile Persons To Apply Act To Bohras, Says Shaikh Adamji Mamooji

If those who consider Dawoodi Bohras as mere petty traders and businessmen, were present in the C.J. Hall on Friday evening, they would have gone home with quite a different impression formed of them.

Speeches by different speakers, in most eloquent language and at the top of their voices were made to express their emphatic protests against the application of the Wakf Act to the Dawoodi Bohra community, and an appeal was made to the Legislative Council and the Government to exclude them from its operations.

Friday was observed as a day of mourning and all shops owned by Bohras were closed in the City. A procession marched towards the C.J. Hall from Bhendy Bazar with black flags, the processionists shouting "Wakf Act Boycott," and so forth. The meeting at the C.J. Hall was presided by Khan Bahadur Shaikh Adamji Mamooji, ex-M.L.C of the Punjab and First Class Magistrate of Rawalpindi.

WHY WAKF ACT WAS INTRODUCED.

In his address to the assemblage, which consisted of nearly four thousand, he traced the history of the Wakf Act and explained as to how the Government was moved to introduce the Wakf Act owing to the mal-administration of some properties by the trustees of Muslim charities a few years ago, and said that a few persons hostile to the Dawoodi Bohra community, moved the Government to apply the Wakf Act to that community also and to withdraw the exemption, if any.

The Chairman pointed out that the Dawoodi Bohra community had been loyal and friendly to the British Government and had made considerable sacrifice and, therefore, he thought that the Government should not include the Dawoodi Bohra community in its operations. As a matter of fact, he said, there was no justification for any Government to force such an Act upon any community against its will.

MULLAJI SAHEB'S MANAGEMENT.

His Holiness the Mullaji Saheb stood on quite a different footing in respect of the supervision, control and management of the charities placed under his control. No other community had so well managed the charities as the Mullaji Saheb of the Dawoodi Bohra community. He, therefore, appealed the Government and the members of the Legislative Council not to force this Act upon the Dawoodi Bohra community against their will.

Several resolutions were then passed urging the Viceroy, the Governor of Bombay and the members of the Legislative Council to exempt the Dawoodi Bohra community from the operation of the Mussalman Wakf Act.

A resolution was also passed authorising the President to forward the resolutions to His Excellency the Viceroy, the Governor of Bombay and the members of the Council.

APPEAL TO VICEROY.

Mr. Yusufali Tyebali, Advocate, moved the main resolution and Mr. Yusuali A. Bakarbhai seconded:—

"This public meeting of the Dawoodi Bohras most respectfully urge upon His Excellency the Governor-General to appease the wounded feelings of their community by graciously granting permission for the introduction in the Central Legislature of a Bill to amend the Mussalman Wakf Act, 1923, so as to exempt from its operation all Wakfs of the Dawoodi Bohra community."

Both the speakers made fervent appeals to the Government to exempt the Dawoodi Bohra community from the application of the Act.

Among other resolutions, the following was proposed by Mr. Ismailji Aminbhoy Dhorajiwala and seconded by Mr. Nurbhoy Dedanwala:—

"This public meeting of the Dawoodi Bohra community respectfully urges upon the Government of Bombay that the Wakfs of the community should not be included within the purview of the provisions of the Bill, which is proposed to be brought before the Legislative Council by Mr. Syed Munaver, as it appears from the 'agenda' put before the Council."

SHAUKAT ALI v SADANAND

Magistrate Adjourns Case To Frame Charges

When the case in which Maulana Shaukat Ali is charging Mr. S. Sadanand, Editor and Mr. D. N. Nadkarni, Printer and Publisher of the "Free Press Journal" with defamation, was called out on Friday before the Chief Presidency Magistrate Bombay, Mr. Baker appearing on behalf of the complainant informed the Magistrate that Mr. Hooseinbhoy Laljee, who was to have given evidence was not present in Court. He stated that the evidence Mr. Laljee would have tendered, was to disprove that Maulana Shaukat Ali had uttered the words published in the report regarding the incident at the Peace Committee. Mr. Baker contended that Maulana Shaukat Ali had already denied having uttered the words complained of and if the defence were seeking to prove that those words were uttered, he would in that event reserve the right to call Mr. Hooseinbhoy Laljee.

Mr. Kanuga:—My instructions are that the words were uttered.

Mr. Baker:—Then I shall reserve the right to call Mr. Hooseinbhoy Laljee and I will now request your worship to frame charges against the accused.

The Magistrate observed that as Mr. Y. Noori, counsel for the complainant was not present it would be better if the case was adjourned to a short date.

Mr. Baker then submitted that he would send the draft of the charges to Mr. Noori and have them approved and present them in Court.

His Worship postponed the case to August 18 for framing the Charges.

UPPER MOHMANDS ACTIVE AGAIN

Cavalry Patrol Fired At But Without Effect

SIMLA, Aug. 11.

The Gandao column yesterday reconnoitred Yusuf Khel area, six miles nothwest of Ghalanai in the direction of Nahakki.

The column commander and the Deputy Commissioner of Peshawar themselves reconnoitred Nahakki Pass and the whole movement passed off without any incident except that a cavalry patrol which had advanced a short way up the Tortigga Nullah leading to Khapak Pass had a few shots fired at it without effect in the afternoon.

The patrol also heard some desultory firing in the direction of the Khapak Pass.

It was subsequently learnt that some Upper Mohmands had had an engagement with Halimzais at Toratigga village at the foot of the pass two miles within the Halimzai territory.

No details of the engagement are yet available and all was quiet everywhere last night.—A. P.

be appointed to consider the questions involved and to devise means for providing suitable avenues of employment to those who would otherwise emigrate. A question for consideration would be whether the conditions of domestic service in the homeland could not be improved so that they may outweigh the attractions of higher remuneration at Bombay. The question bristles with difficulties, as no objections can be raised to servant women going to Bombay to work in the families of Mangaloreans. A very useful movement started by Fr. Manuel Coelho to ameliorate the condition of servant women could form the nucleus of a more extensive organisation."

WITHIN THE BOUNDARY.

From the foregoing reference it would appear that the Kanara Catholic Association was alive to the dangers to women-emigrants, but seven solid years have since elapsed while the matter has been allowed to drift both by the clergy and the Association, as otherwise, the number of such women servants in Bombay should have considerably mitigated instead of increasing, particularly in this era of trade depression.

The question of retarding the exodus of young women seems to be more within the purview of the Parish Priests than the Association, as Mr. Shresta himself observes in addition to suggesting the inauguration of an organisation with a branch in Bombay, including both clergy and laity, ladies and men, to expand and develop the good work done by Father Manuel Coelho, S.J. Appealing to Parish Priests he says "I would strongly appeal to the Parish Priests to take steps to discourage the emigration of women and girls to Bombay. They have considerable influence and have facilities for exercising it."

ANOTHER EXAMPLE.

In my last article on the above question, I referred to the example set by the Ghati community, but since then another example from a wealthy community has been given birth. The Parsi community of Bombay have shown more concern on a matter of lesser gravity than that of facing the Christian clergy. In the largely attended public meeting held recently in the Sir Cawasji Jehangir Hall to protest against Parsi girls' marriages with non-Parsis, speakers strongly advocated social boycott of those families who emerge from the scope of their resolution.

Is not the question before Christians a more serious one? Is not the case before us worthy of treatment with social boycott of those families who send their little girls to Bombay against the wishes of their respective Parish Priests? The question is surely fraught with the gravest danger of dragging the community to a disgraceful abyss.

EMPLOYERS PLEASE RESCUE.

As to the difficulty of Mangalorean families securing domestic servants, their supply could very well be arranged through the Employment Bureau suggested by Mr. Shresta. Such supplies should be restricted to those employers who give an undertaking to the Bureau to repatriate the employee to Mangalore when her services are dispensed with. In any case, I would not call it a handicap on the part of Mangalorean families, if they are unable to secure the services of young girls, since the efforts of the Parish Priests should be to discourage without distinction, the exodus of girls to Bombay and keep them away from the City's gay life.

While I most earnestly solicit the co-operation of non-Christian employers in exercising more discretion in the employment of domestic servants, I appeal to Christians of Goa and Madras to follow suit with Mangaloreans' efforts, as otherwise abetment of emigration among a certain section may provide better opportunities for the other, thus nourishing the evil in place of erasing it.

WHIPPING BILL IN COUNCIL

Will Not Be Used Against Civil Resisters, Says Home Member

POONA, Aug. 11.

The Bombay Legislative Council to-day passed the third reading of the Whipping Bill. There was again strong opposition to the bill on the ground that whipping was a barbarous method of punishment and that the provisions would be misused by the authorities.

Mr. R. D. Bell, Home Member, replying to the debate, made it clear that the provisions of the bill would be enforced only in exceptional circumstances when martial law and such other emergency measures were enforced.

INTENTION OF GOVT.

He assured those who expressed fear that this might be used against civil resisters that the intention of Government in bringing forward the bill was only to check rioting of the type that occurred in Bombay. He expressed willingness to incorporate a provision in the bill to the effect that the Governor-in-Council would issue a notification applying the provisions of the bill only when public security was manifestly in danger. He was also willing to confine the bill to the City of Bombay only. Quoting figures, he pointed out that there were 153 and 192 cases of whipping in the whole of the Presidency in 1931 and 1932 respectively and 52 cases in 1932 in connection with civil disobedience, the majority of the latter being juvenile offenders.

CONFINED TO BOMBAY CITY ONLY.

When the third reading of the bill was taken up, a Government amendment seeking to confine the operations of the bill to the city of Bombay only was passed.

JAMIAT SINGH'S THREAT OF VOLUNTARY FAST

Appeals To Bombay Public To Contribute For Maintenance Of Released Political Prisoners To Avert Acute Situation

Sirdar Jamit Singh, Secretary of the Political sufferers' Bureau issues the following appeal:—

"Since my return from Jail, a day has hardly passed, when I was not approached, by the released volunteers for some sort of help. Before the suspension of the Civil Disobedience Movement, the Congress was keeping some camps for such volunteers, where they could get board and lodging for 15 days and then make their own arrangements, after that period.

ACUTE SITUATION.

But now the position has become so acute that the Congress volunteers who had braved lathi charges and gone to jails for half a dozen times, instead of being honored, have to ask for shelter and beg for food, on the very day of their release from jail. I approached many Congress leaders, but nothing useful could be done. The other day at Chowpatty meeting, three volunteers, who had been only recently released and who had to my own knowledge sairificed everything for the sake of their country, met me and unfolded their piteable condition.

I called them to my house and I could not control myself when I heard that the soldiers who would have been respected as herols in any country were without shelter and food for three days in this raying season.

VOLUNTARY FAST.

Finding no means to supply the needs of such release prisoners, I have deecided that having the honor of being the ex-General Officer Commanding of such volunteers, I must stand by them and undergo suffering till the conscience of the Bombay people is roused and that is to go on a voluntary fast from midday of the 14th inst. till arrangements are sufficiently made:—

To give shelter and food to the released prisoners, for at least 15 days after their showing the release certificate, to the prisoners who were released after 1st August 1933.

And to give train fare to those who want to go back to their home.

This expense will cost only 1000/ a month.

ANTI-COMMUNIST BODY

Ireland's Blue-Shirts, and General O'Duffy, their commander, is preparing to defy both him and the Northern Ireland Government, which has already declared the organisation illegal.

Between now and the mass parade of the Blue Shirts—formerly the Army Comrades' Association—in Dublin on August 13 a very grave situation is expected.

In an interview General O'Duffy revealed his plans for a secret organisation—he avoids the term "army" as applying to the New Guards—in Ulster.

Standing beneath a picture of Michael Collins, the leader of the Irish Rebellion, in the bare room which he has made his headquarters, the General expounded his plans for a united Ireland, and the steps which he means to take to defeat any move by the Government.

"I have interviewed in the course of the past few days," he said, "determined men who have come to me from Northern Ireland. They are preparing to organise there, despite the opposition.

"They can declare our meetings illegal I do not believe in meetings, I believe in other methods. We are going to build up our strength in Ulster, and nothing can stop the movement there."

Mr de Valera has declared that he will not allow any parades in arms or in uniform, and he had the Army Comrades, alias the National Guards, in mind when he made this declaration.

"We maintain that the dress of the National Guards—blue shirts and shorts—is no more a uniform than the kit of a rowing club or a harrier. We fully intend to proceed with the demonstration."

General O'Duffy added that his guards would demand arms for defence when the emergency arose.

"We are an anti-Communist organisation," he said "We have adopted the Fascist salute, not because it is Fascist, but because it is distinctive, and has removed us from the British Army salute.

I asked him to give a direct definition of the attitude of the guards towards the Jews. The second rule of the constitution lays it down.

"To oppose Communism and alien control and influence in national affairs and to uphold Christian principles in every sphere of public activity."

Only those of Irish birth or parentage and of the Christian faith are eligible for membership of the guard. He admitted that it was directed against the Jews.

"The Jews are the instigators of Communism," he said.

The guard claims that 20,000 men will parade on August 13.

Kurla Municipal President Exonerates Board From Charges Of Maladministration And Prays For One Year Chance

(From Our Correspondent)

KURLA, Aug 11

The draft reply extending to 20 type-written sheets, prepared by the President, exonerating the Municipality from the various charges of mal-administration (gross mismanagement of its financial and administrative affairs) preferred by the Collector of the Bombay Suburban District was finally adopted by the General Board of the Kurla Municipality at its special meeting held last evening at the Municipal Council Hall, Mr. M. N. Patankar presiding.

The deliberations concluded at about 11 p.m. after a heated discussion over the question of the threatened supersession of the Municipality extending over four hours.

WALK-OUT.

The original proposition of Mr. Fitwala was carried by an overwhelming majority of 12:: 4. Five members reserved their votes. The ex-president Mr. M. J. Bhathena, against whom several allegations were made in an amendment of Mr. Ganpule with regard to his past actions during his presidentship for about six years from 1925 to 1931 had left the meeting earlier as a protest against the action of the board in not allowing him an opportunity to reply categorically to the charges levelled against him by defeating his motion to adjourn the meeting to Saturday afternoon for that purpose. Three members were absent at this meeting.

THREE AMENDMENTS

In all three amendments were moved of which two were on party lines, the first of Mr. Mokashi blaming the majority and welcoming the supersession, while the second of Mr. Ganpule attempting to throw the whole blame on the old regime. The third amendment of Mr. Bandal represented an independent party, which requested the Government not to supersede the Municipality in these days of political reforms but to appoint an efficient administrative officer.

The following is the substance of the explanations given by the Municipality to the Collector's charges of mal-administration (clause by clause):—

REJOINDER.

Since [illegible]ity became a municipal borough in 1929, it has been trying its level best to improve the administration and to carry out the various suggestions made by the Collector from time to time.

T[illegible]ity collected the arrears to the extent of Rs 1,40,000 in 1931-32. Mr. Kunte was unable to make proportionate recoveries during his tenure of office for about 18 months. In many cases the arrears were and are still quite irrecoverable. Arrears in current dues could not be avoided due to general trade depression and especially due to the then prevalent mill strikes. The biggest item for recovery was the outstanding claim against the G. I. P. Railway, which alone amounted to Rs 73,606-14-0 for which legal steps have been taken. During the year 1933-34 the recovery on account of arrears alone till the end of July amounted to Rs. 59,000. Kurla's population mostly comprises of mill-hands. It is practically impossible to force with any vigour a programme of outright recoveries. Most of the properties are mortgaged and heavily encumbered in their market value which has practically been reduced beyond the extent of the mortgage liabilities. With the opening of the mills and the prospects of the trade revival it may confidently be hoped that the Municipal executives will be able to give a better account of their work in the matter of recoveries.

IRRECOVERABLE

About Rs. 70,000 of these arrears are irrecoverable on account of their being time-barred or as the assessment was levied on properties, which had been either demolished or in ruinous condition. The genuine arrears amount to about Rs. 1,20,000. The Municipality is prepared to engage the services of an officer that may be lent to this Municipality by the Government for the purpose.

The work of verifying the correctness of vacancy reports in respect of house-tax and that of sanctioning remission and refund of the tax has been earnestly taken up, since the reconstitution of the municipality. Since 1930-31 special care is being taken to collect license dues in advance. New capital works are not taken in hand before provision is made for them in the budget; and before the works are commenced, estimates are prepared, tenders invited and contracts into with necessary sanction. Appointments were made with the sanction of the municipality. If a separate rule is deemed necessary, the municipality will frame a rule on the lines suggested by the Collector.

SANITARY MEASURES.

With regard to the defective sanitation of the town a general inspection will clearly show that the present board has been doing its level best to improve it. At the suggestion of the Government, the Municipality has shown its willingness to adopt the Nasik system of trenching the night soil. The appointment of a Medical Officer of Health is being considered by the Sanitary Committee. The question of segregating the existing milch stables to any particular locality is practically impossible on account of its cost, as according to the recent decision of the High Court the Municipality has to pay the compensative charges for removal etc., of such stables. The Municipality has resolved that new milch stables should be erected only in the prescribed localities outside the town.

There is no bonafide map of Kurla, as there has been no regular cadastral survey of the city. When the work of preparing a survey sheet would be complete, the Municipality will take early steps to prescribe the regular line of streets therein. As regards the expenditure on general improvement of roads the present board has incurred a very consderable amount over them. Rs 46,000 have been sanctioned for the current year for asphalting certain important roads and the work will be taken up immediately after the new water mains have been laid.

APPOINTMENTS AND DISMISSALS

Mr. Kunte had the full sympathy of the board with him. Mr. Thomas left the services of the Municipality to better his prospects in the Bombay Corporation, Mr. Pirpada, who was already working as a special recovery officer, was allowed to act as a temporary chief officer as a measure of economy. On account of his insubordinate attitude towards the president, his services were dispensed with by the Municipality. Mr. Phadke acted for a few days, as the Municipality could not function without a chief officer till Mr. Shaikh took over the charge. The selection of Mr. Shaikh was made by the general board, as he was highly recommended by the President, Chief Officer and the Engineer of the Bandra Municipality. The board has every reason to believe that the municipal administration under Mr. Shaikh would be highly efficient and par excellence.

NAMING OF ROADS.

Due to certain misunderstand- the naming of roads assumed communal aspect but the board has, to avoid further complications, referred the matter to the collector for the amicable settlement. The municipality is awaiting the collector's decision. Immediately on receipt of the letter of disapproval from the Assistant Director of Public Health, the services of the vaccinator were discontinued after he worked in the municipality for three weeks. The budget provision of Rs. 1,500 for electrification of the office and the council hall was made with the administrative approval of the general board. No sanction was necessary for entering into a contract for this work, as it was covered by the budget grant. Mr. Akbaryar Khan is maintaining a building permission register, for the neglect of which he was to be replaced. Most of the improvements and the capital works have been satisfactorily executed by him as Engineer. Adequate attention is paid to the correct preparation of the municipal election roll. The omission of names in this year's list is rectified.

RECORD OF ACTIVITY.

From the above explanatory remarks, says the president, it will be quite evident that every reasonable and genuine effort is made by the present Municipality to place the Municipal administration on a sound footing. This can be seen from the casual survey of the conditions of the Municipality three years back and that existing at present. The sanitation of the town has considerably improved and surface drains are constructed to a length of a mile. To ensure the efficient water supply the Municipality has launched the scheme of laying the rider mains, which are estimated to cost a lakh of rupees. The Government has been approached with a request to prepare a town planning scheme for one part of the town.

The proposal to take over the permanent way of the Central Saisette Railway is under consideration. The Municipality is eager to introduce underground sewerage scheme. The work of reclaiming the low lying portions of the burial grounds is well-nigh finished. The Municipality is shortly to provide buildings of its own on quite modern lines for the schools under its control provisions for which have been made in the current budget. New markets have been constructed and substantial repairs done to the existing ones. The Municipality has explored several channels to increase its revenue chief of which are the levy of the tall tax and giving effect to conveyance tax rules. Rs. 13,000 accrued from toll last year and the right this year has been auctioned for Rs. 21,000.

GIVE ONE YEAR CHANCE.

The Municipality is prepared to carry out the suggestions made by the Government. The Municipality, therefore, thinks that supersession would not be a proper remedy for improving the administration. The Collector will be kind enough to give due weight to the explanations and recommend to the Government to see the working of the Municipality for a further perlow of at least one year before the orders for supersession are passed.

The Duke of York left on Thursday afternoon for London after spending twenty-four hours at a camp at Southwold, Suffolk, where 400 boys from factories and public schools are his guests.

A similar camp has been held annually for twelve years. The guests included the Bishop of Croydon and Lord Burghley, M.P., the famous Olympic hurdler.

The camp will break up on Saturday after enjoying ideal weather.—B. O. W.

FIRST AID FOR MOTHERS

Most children are subject to Toothache Earache, Colds and sudden bursts of Temperature 'ASPRO' can be safely given to children so affected. It will soothe the pain away and quickly reduce Temperature

HOW TO GIVE 'ASPRO' TO THE KIDDIES

Two simple methods of giving 'ASPRO' to the kiddies are: a with a little milk: or b break the tablet up and administer in a teaspoonful of jam. The dose is: children 3 to 6 years, 1/2 tablet; 6 to 14 years 1 tablet; 14 to 16 years, 1 1/2 tablets. 'ASPRO' like any other medicine should not be given to babies under 3 years of age without medical advice.

GREAT men are simple in their methods. The greatest physicians, for instance, advocate simplicity in healing—meaning by "simplicity" that the method used should work in close harmony with natural laws and deal with causes instead of effects. The COSTLY way is generally the WRONG way. Complex things are generally complex because they are based on fundamental errors. The right thing is a simple thing. This, in a nutshell, is why 'ASPRO', the remarkable medicine tablet, has proved of such benefit to mankind. It is simple—powerful—effective—it acts on the causes of pain and by so doing removes the pain and enables the patient again to work in harmony with the great natural laws that will lead to the continuance of sound health.

Dear Sirs,
I have been suffering from a very bad throat and also severe headaches, and my whole system seemed to be out of order. I felt so depressed many a day that I could not do my work, but for the last three weeks I have been taking 'ASPRO' and the change is wonderful and my work is a pleasure.
I can recommend 'ASPRO' as a safe and sure remedy.
Yours faithfully,

INSTANT RELIEF. WHERE ASPIRIN AND POWDERS FAILED

Dear Sirs,
I am writing a few words of thanks for what your wonderful 'ASPRO' has done for me. I have suffered for three years with headache and could not get relief. I have tried aspirins and headache powders, but got no relief. But thanks to 'ASPRO' I had instant relief. I will never be without a box of 'ASPRO' in my house.
Yours sincerely,

CHEMIST WARDS OFF MALARIA

Dear Sirs,—I am an analytical chemist and was in business in Sydney for many years.
I am at present in the Solomon Islands where Malaria is very prevalent, and I can assure you I have warded off many an attack by the use of 'ASPRO' Tablets in myself and others, also given great relief in bad cases of Malaria and hastened recovery. They are a great advantage over quinine in that they are pleasant to take, and have none of the nerve-racking or deafening effect which almost invariably accompany the taking of any quantity of quinine.
My experience with 'ASPRO' is large, and during a prospecting tour through the Northern Territory of Australia, I and others with me took 'ASPRO' frequently, and none of us ever had one day's illness from Fever or Influenza.
Had I been without 'ASPRO' I would have probably been laid up with Malaria.
I am, Believe me, Yours sincerely,

REMEMBER teeth are living parts of your body. They may be ill through lack of the proper nourishment—Calcium.

—but now you can

Cure your teeth from within—

KALZANA, the Calcium food, is the new idea in the care of the teeth. For many years people thought that a clean tooth could not decay. Yet however carefully we cleaned them they always did decay. For your teeth are living organs of the body; they may be weak, they may be ill and underfed. Through microscopic canals they get their food [calcium] from the blood.

Weak teeth give continuous trouble. By taking Kalzana, the calcium food, you can make your teeth strong and white and prevent decay.

A well-known dental surgeon writes:
"Kalzana makes the teeth strong and hard and so stops tooth decay. I have often seen extraordinary results."

Keep your teeth clean with a dentifrice, but make them strong with Kalzana. Only then will you be really free from decay. Kalzana will make your teeth hard and healthy. Moreover, Kalzana strengthens the whole constitution and gives your whole body increased powers of resistance.

REVIEW OF FRONTIER POLICE

Crime Increases Because Leniency Is Shown To Offenders

NATHIAGALI, Aug. 10.

"The tendency of the inhabitants of this province to resort to violence on the slightest and most inadequate provocation is again revealed in the increase in figures for grievous and simple hurt with dangerous weapons.

His Excellency the Governor agrees with the Inspector-General of Police that if these figures are to be reduced it is essential that cases of grievous and simple hurt with dangerous weapons should not, except under very exceptional circumstances, be compounded, and he earnestly draws the attention of all the magistrates to this matter." says the Government's review of the Frontier police administration report for 1932.

The report under review deals with a momentous and a strenuous year for the police force. The year opened with the province being in a state akin to martial law and for the first six months the police was fully occupied in dealing with abnormal situation arising from the action taken by the Government in December 1931 to terminate the prolonged period open often to violent contempt for law and order that marked the year 1931.

FORCE DISBANDED.

Preoccupations of the police did not end with political agitation, for the year witnessed a change in the constitution of the province which necessitated the organisation and redistribution of the police force, and also the suspension of the Frontier Crimes Regulation Measure which was not altogether without its reaction on the activities of the police. In addition, the energies of officers were further diverted by raising and organising a special and additional police to cope with the abnormal situation in the early part of the year. Later with the return of more peaceful conditions and also for reasons of economy, a large force of the additional police had to be disbanded and paid off after it had performed the most valuable service.-

An interesting feature is that which deals with the suspension of the Frontier Crime Regulation suspended in May 1932. While it would, therefore, be premature, at this stage, to draw any definite conclusions, its preliminary reactions on crime and convictions with particular reference to murder, which occupies its usual unfortunate position of prominence in the report, are not without significance and interest. So far as murder is concerned, statistics covering the last decade reveal that the percentage of convictions to true cases in the year under review dropped from the previous average of 45 per cent to about 30 per cent with a corresponding increase in the number of cases undetected or judicially acquitted.

LENIENT SENTENCES.

The satisfaction, that may be derived from the fact that this decrease was accompanied by an increase in the percentage of judicial convictions was somewhat damped by revelation that out of 338 true cases sent for judicial trial, conviction followed in only 41.6 per cent of such cases as compared with 45.2 per cent in 1931 and by further revelation that out of 87 persons sentenced to death only 40 were executed. This figure reveals that in only one out of fourteen murders committed, that is 7 per cent, is the death sentence carried. The year also proved strenuous for the Criminal Investigation Department who dealt with 176 cases, the highest figure for many years, and His Excellency the Governor readily acknowledged the admirable manner in which despite the handicap of an inadequate staff they have discharged their duties in this and the preceding two years under conditions of exceptional difficulties.

In conclusion the Governor desires to record his appreciation of loyalty and splendid services rendered by officers and men of the force during the arduous and difficult year. In particular his grateful acknowledgments are due to Mr. J. H. Adams, who held the office of the Inspector-General of Police throughout the year for his admirable administration and leadership of the force.—A. P.

COTTON OUTLOOK

Crop Reports Satisfactory

Bombay, Aug 10

Messrs. P. Chrystal and Co have issued the following weekly cotton market report:—

With the exception of yesterday, when there was a technical reaction, the tone throughout the week has been weak. As so often happens there was much liquidation before the Bureau Report was published on Tuesday, most operators preferring to have a square position until they knew whether the Bureau officials were going to serve up a surprise as they frequently do on 8th August. This year was no exception as the crop estimate was given as 12,314,000 whereas the average of private guesses was around eleven million bales. The condition of the crop as at 1st August is given as 74.2 per cent. Of the 40,798,000 acres planted we have been informed that only 29,704,000 acres remain in cultivation the balance presumably having been given up under the Wallace plan. The present crop estimate indicates an average yield of 198.4 lbs. on the remaining acreage. This is a large figure and is partly explained by the reasonable suggestion that the farmers must have given up their least promising acres. In addition weather conditions this year so far have been somewhat better than usual, and we understand the crop estimators believe that damage by the boll-weevil will be under the average of recent years. In spite of the acreage reduction, the world feels that there is going to be more than enough cotton for all probable requirements, for whilst the supply of American cotton, present and prospective, is less than it was a year ago, it would appear probable that this will be largely made up by larger crops in Egypt and probably India. By the end of last month 171,000 bales of American cotton had already been ginned. The crop will soon be moving freely. Unless weather conditions should take a turn for the worse, always a possibility at this time of the year, we look like having a dull market for some time to come.

LOCAL SITUATION.

In Bombay during the week trading has been very restricted. Actual demand has been conspicuous by its absence. Speculators have been sellers rather than buyers and contract prices have sagged fully ten Rupees per candy. The supply of old crop in India is smaller than usual, but with Japan supplied with Indian cotton until the end of the year, China quiet, Europe taking little interest, and local Mills finding difficulty in finding buyers for their goods, for the time being there is little the Bulls can enthuse about, especially as reports from the cotton districts are very satisfactory. It looks as if the cotton market is likely to decline further.

ORTHODOXY TAKES TO LATHIS

War On Harijans Amicably Settled

SHEIKHUPURA, Aug. 9.

A situation which might well have taken an ugly turn as the result of tension between Harijans and the orthodox inhabitants of Ramgarha, a village about a mile from this place, was controlled in time by the Harijan Sewak Sangh, Sheikhupura.

Some orthodox Namdharis and other residents of the place took possession of a well there and would not allow Harijans to draw water from it. Armed with lathis and dangs these men are reported to have sat near the well for nearly two days. The Harijans first approached the President of the Singh Sabha, Sheikhupura, and later went to the Harijan Sewak Sangh for assistance. Some thirty Harijans had volunteered to resort to picketing in case the orthodox people proved unamenable to reasoning.

Sardar Anand Singh, Dr. Nandlal, Lala Mella Ram and others, however, first went in deputation to the Namdharis and succeeded in pursuading them to permit the Harijans the use of the well.—A. P.

Journalist Relates Tale Of Woe During Poona Conference And Alleges Sub-Inspector Demanded Contents Of Press Messages

(From A Correspondent.)

POONA, August 10.

An important issue affecting journalism whether a Police officer can demand from a press correspondent contents of the messages booked at the Telegraph Office for publication in his papers,—has been raised in a case against a Poona journalist who was charged for riding a cycle without light under section 61 of the District Police Act.

The case was heard in the Court of S. B. Vaidya, Cantonment Magistrate, Poona, and the accused was Mr. K.B. Mysorkar, a Hindu journalist of Poona.

Mr. L.B. Bhopatkar, with Mr. D.E. Palkar defended the accused. The case has created a good deal of sensation locally and attracted to the Court, an unusually large number of press-representatives.

The complainant a constable in the case, in the course of cross-examination, told the court that the accused, (Mysorkar) was Mr. Nimbkar and the police diary also contained the same name.

SURPRISE IN COURT.

At this stage Mr. Bhopatkar, asked the accused Mysorkar to take his seat among the press-representatives, as he was not Mr. Nimbkar.

Mr. Mysorkar left the dock and sat among the pressmen. The court, and everybody else were mystified and the proceedings had to be abruptly suspended for nearly 15 minutes in the absence of any accused person in the dock.

The constable (complainant) then left the court room, presumably for D.S.P's Office, which is within a stone's throw from the court buildings. In the meantime a whisper went round

NEW NAME.

After some time, the constable entered the court-room and stated that he was now allowed to call the accused as Mysorkar and not Nimbkar (laughter). The accused then re-entered the dock and the proceedings commenced again.

The next prosecution witness, Sub-Inspector Mohmed Shaikh Ismail in the course of his cross-examination stated that the accused gave witness his name as Nimbkar. The (witness) wrote the same name in his police diary. He told the same name to the Assistant Superintendent of Police Jenner, who sanctioned the present prosecution.

When asked to produce the undertaking by the accused to the effect that he would present himself at the Cantonment Magistrate's Court at 11-30 a.m. on 15th July, the witness took it out from his pocket and handed it to the court, stating "see here, it is written as Nimbkar" in Modi with his signature in English.

It was found that the undertaking given in writing by the accused was in ink in a legible handwriting, with his (accused) signature in English at the bottom of it, clearly as K.B. Mysorkar.

The Sub-Inspector then stated that he had no hesitation in calling the accused as Mysorkar or Mhaiskar as the defence counsel pleased. (laughter).

HOW IT AROSE.

Cross-examined by Mr. Bhopatkar, witness Sub-Inspector admitted that on the July 15, morning at 10 a.m. the accused had come to the Cantonment Police Station and was allowed to go. He stated that after the publication of the story regarding the incident in the "Times of India" of July 18, the Assistant Superintendent of Police, Jenner, sanctioned the prosecution against the accused. The witness added that he was not quite sure as to who gave the report of the incident to the "Times of India".

Mr. Bhopatkar, then told the court that he wanted to file the written statement of the accused.

Mr. Bhopatkar then put in a cutting of the "Times of India" of the 18th July, containing the story regarding the incident under caption "Annoyance to a journalist, a Poona Incident." The case was then adjourned to 14th August when the Assistant Superintendent of Police, Mr. Jenner will be examined as a defence-witness.

ACCUSED'S STATEMENT

The accused is a journalist by profession. In the early hours of the morning of Saturday, 15th July, after having sent his last telephone message in connection with the Congress Conference in Poona, at about 1-30 a.m., the accused was pushing his bicyle home, when near the Synagogue he was accosted by a Police Sub-Inspector whose name the accused does not know but whom he could identify.

The Sub-Inspector told the accused to stop and asked him why he was loitering at that time of nightfl The accused replied that he was a journalist and was returning home, and was not loitering, nor did he intend to loiter or had any reason to do so. The accused's cycle had a light on.

"TEACHING A LESSON."

Thereupon, the Sub-Inspector flared up and made the insulting remarks "You are a thief" and added "if you are a newspaperman, all newspaperman are arrogant and required to be taught a lesson."

Then the accused was taken to a Police Chowky nearby and there the Sub-Inspector asked the constable to keep him there for the night. The Sub-Inspector insisted on knowing the contents of the messages sent by the accused, which he (accused) refused to divulge.

The accused asked the Sub-Inspector to release him as he was feeling sleepy and said that he would present himself at any place and time mentioned by the Sub-Inspector. Then he was ordered to report himself at the Cantonment Police Station at 8-30 a.m. The accused said that as he was practically without sleep for 48 hours, the hour mentioned was too early.

ILLEGAL!

The officer considered the protest as an act of insolence and virtually placed the accused under arrest.

The accused was then marched off to the Railway Police Station, a constable in front and another behind him, inspite of his request to be taken to the Cantonment Police Station where any one of those on duty would recognise him and convince the Sub-Inspector about what the accused was, and what station he held in life.

As the party came opposite the Infirmary in Wellesley Road, the Sub-Inspector started on a fresh exploit of his own and chased a man who ultimately ran away.

This chase lasted about half an hour, during which period the accused was kept standing on the road-way in the rain.

DISCOURTESY.

After reaching the Chowky the accused stood near the Sub-Inspector's chair in order to answer his questions, when at his instance a constable treated him with discourtesy and insolently asked him to stand back.

The accused's undertaking to present himself at the Cantonment Police Station had to be taken in writing, but there was no ink for signature. It took about a quarter of an hour to bring ink from outside. As the constable could not write fast the accused wrote his name.

PROCEEDINGS DROPPED.

The accused was told at the Cantonment Police Station by the Sub-Inspector that there was no charge against him and that all proceedings had been dropped.

The above is a true statement of facts as they occurred, wherefrom it will be clear that if any person has had any grievance against the other, it is the accused who has had it against the said Sub-Inspector.

Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru (talking with Mr. Dalvi, a local Liberal leader) arrived in Bombay on Thursday evening by the Mail Boat. In an interview with a "Chronicle" representative, he did not deny the report that he contemplated retiring from active politics. He says he will be content to be a "provincial lawyer, and live in obscurity."
